George H. McCASKEY
CHAIRMAN

George Halas McCaskey became the fourth Chairman in Chicago Bears team history on May 5, 2011, following in the footsteps of his grandfather, George Halas, father, Edward W. McCaskey and brother, Michael.

George is one of the 13 grandchildren – and namesake – of George Halas, the founder and patriarch of the Chicago Bears. Like his brothers and sisters, he grew up around the Bears. His first part-time job, at age 14, was as an office assistant at the team's headquarters in Chicago's Loop. He later worked for several summers as a ball boy at Bears training camp, calling it one of the best experiences of his life.

George has worked to carry on the storied tradition of the Bears with a yearly goal of winning the NFL Championship, uphold the integrity and values established in the previous 104 years of the club and oversee the franchise's leadership role in the Chicagoland community. One of the club's recent developments and accomplishments has been the addition of the Bears Diversity, Equity and Inclusion department within the front office. Started in 2021, the DEI department continues to form an integrated approach to all DEI efforts that will permeate throughout the club while also advancing a culture of inclusivity and belonging resulting in more equitable outcomes.

Prior to his role as the club's Chairman, George previously served as the team's senior director of ticket operations, working in the ticket office for 20 seasons, joining the Bears in 1991 as ticket manager. He has been a member of the Bears' Board of Directors since 2004.

George attended Arizona State University, where he earned his bachelor's degree in Broadcasting in 1978, his law degree in 1981 and a Master of Laws (LL.M.) degree in 2021. He passed the Illinois bar exam in 1981, but now describes himself as a "recovering lawyer." He worked in television news in Phoenix, Peoria, Tulsa and Chicago, before serving as an Assistant State's Attorney in Lee County and DeKalb County, Ill.

In his spare time, George enjoys officiating youth sports, including high school girls flag football.

Kevin WARREN

PRESIDENT AND CEO

Kevin Warren was named President and Chief Executive Officer of the Chicago Bears on January 12, 2023, and formally assumed the role on April 17, 2023. In his role, Warren is responsible for all business operations and football operations, while also overseeing the team's transformative stadium development project.

Warren is the first Black President and CEO in club history and the first President and CEO hired from outside the organization. Warren is just the fifth President in Chicago Bears history, following George S. Halas, George "Mugs" Halas, Jr., Michael McCaskey and Ted Phillips.

Leading both football and business operations for the Chicago Bears, Warren played an instrumental role in the coaching search and hiring process of Head Coach Ben Johnson ahead of the 2025 season. Johnson would go on to lead Chicago to an NFC North Division title and appearance in the NFC Divisional Round in his first season at the helm, amassing 12 victories in 2025 (postseason included), tied for the most by any first-year Head Coach in the 106-year history of the Chicago Bears.

Warren was honored at the 2025 NFL Women's Forum with the second-annual Buddy Teevens Forward Progress Award, presented to an individual who champions and advocates for the inclusion of women in football. NFL Women's Forum founder Sam Rapoport lauded Warren's progression and advancements, including assembling 'one of the most diverse leadership teams in sports,' since joining the Bears in 2023.

A veteran executive of 24 years in the NFL, Warren joined the Bears in 2023 after spending nearly four years as Commissioner of the Big Ten Conference. Warren served as the sixth commissioner in the 127-year history of the conference. He was the first Black leader to serve as commissioner of any Power Five conference. In his time with the Big Ten, Warren guided the conference to an expansion to 16 schools beginning in 2024, adding the University of Southern California and the University of California Los Angeles, as well as leading the negotiation of an unprecedented media rights deal that will generate over $7 billion during a seven-year period, and generates $1 billion annually. Warren also substantially increased the talent of color represented in Big Ten Conference office staff, introduced the first basketball media day that featured both men's and women's teams and players equally, created the Big Ten Equality Coalition, a nonpartisan group representing all 14 member institutions committed to combat racism, and developed a mental health and wellness cabinet.

Prior to his nearly four years at the Big Ten Conference, Warren served as the Chief Operating Officer of the Minnesota Vikings (2015-19), one of the most influential, progressive, and profitable periods in the organization's history. As COO of the Vikings, Warren oversaw all aspects of the business operations of the franchise. He also played a key role in the design, development and planning of Twin Cities Orthopedics Performance Center, the Vikings Headquarters in Eagan, Minnesota, in addition to the ancillary real estate development of Viking Lakes. Under Warren's leadership, the Vikings restructured the organization with an emphasis on promoting women to key executive positions.

Prior to working for the Vikings, he represented the Vikings' current ownership group, led by the Wilf Family, in their purchase of the team in 2005. In September of 2013, Warren was named a member of the NFL Committee on Workplace Diversity. Since joining the Bears in 2023, Warren has served as a member of the NFL's Diversity Committee.

Ben JOHNSON
HEAD COACH

School: University of North Carolina
Hometown: Asheville, N.C.

Ben Johnson was named Head Coach of the Chicago Bears on January 21, 2025, becoming the 18th full-time Head Coach in the franchise's history.

In his first season as Head Coach of the Bears, Johnson led Chicago to an NFC North Division title and 12 total wins, including 11 in the regular season. Johnson became the first Head Coach in franchise history to win a postseason game in their first year at the helm, as his 12 victories tied for the most by a first-year Head Coach in the history of the Chicago Bears.

Johnson's offense finished the regular season with the fewest giveaways in the NFL (11), and the second-most points scored off of takeaways in the league (104). The Bears registered the NFL's No. 3-ranked rushing offense in 2025 (144.5 rushing yards per game), as the unit's 127 Big Plays were the second-most by any team in the league. Over the final 10 weeks of the regular season, Chicago amassed 109 points in the fourth quarter and OT, the most by any team in the NFL. The Bears culminated the regular season with 441 points scored, third-most in a single season in franchise history.

Under Johnson's leadership, QB Caleb Williams set a franchise record with 3,942 passing yards in the regular season, adding a 361-yard passing performance in the NFC Wild Card Round win over Green Bay, a single-game club record in the postseason. Williams led the Bears to an NFL-best seven fourth-quarter comebacks in 2025 (postseason included), a single-season franchise record by a QB and tied for the second-most by any player in a season in league history. Rookie TE Colston Loveland finished the postseason with 193 receiving yards, the most by a rookie tight end in a single postseason since at least 1960. Veteran DB Kevin Byard III earned AP First-Team All-Pro honors and was named to the Pro Bowl after leading the NFL with seven interceptions. RB D'Andre Swift (1,087) and rookie RB Kyle Monangai (783) helped Chicago become the only offense in the league with two 750-plus-yard rushers in the NFL in 2025, utilizing the support of First-Team AP All-Pro OL Joe Thuney, Second-Team AP All-Pro OL Darnell Wright and Pro Bowl OL Drew Dalman.

Defensively, the Chicago Bears culminated the regular season with an NFL-best 33 takeaways, including 23 INTs, for a league-leading +22 turnover differential. Chicago's +22 turnover differential registered as the third-best in a single season by the Bears since at least 1960. Chicago became the first NFL team to lead the league in both takeaways (33) and fewest amount of giveaways (11) since 2011 (S.F.), becoming the first Bears team to do so since 1963. The Bears closed out the regular season with a streak of 10-straight games with a takeaway, the best in the NFL to culminate the season and the longest streak for the Bears since 2008. Chicago's defense held opposing offenses to just 13 points scored on their opening drive during the regular season No. 1 in the NFL.

In the NFC Wild Card Round, Johnson led the Bears to an 18-point comeback victory over the Packers, the largest postseason comeback in the NFL since 2022, the fourth-largest comeback overall in team history (postseason included) and the largest postseason comeback in franchise history. Johnson's offense scored 25 points in the fourth quarter of the comeback victory over Green Bay, the second-most fourth-quarter points scored in a postseason game since at least 1991.

Johnson joined the Bears after serving as Offensive Coordinator (2022-24) for the Detroit Lions, where he led one of the most prolific offenses in the National Football League. Named AP NFL Assistant Coach of the Year in 2024, Johnson's offensive unit averaged a franchise-record 409.5 yards per game, helping the Lions average a league-high 32.4 points per game and accumulate 68 total offensive touchdowns – the most by any team in the NFL. Each of his three seasons coordinating Detroit's offense (2022-24), Johnson's group has finished in the top-five in the league in total offense each year, including a No. 2 ranking in 2024. Over the last two seasons (2023-24), no unit has averaged more points per game (30.1) or net yards per game (402.2) than Johnson's offensive unit with the Detroit Lions.

Following his promotion to Offensive Coordinator in 2022, Johnson helped the Lions secure eight wins out of their last 10 matchups to close out the year. One season later (2023), Johnson's group finished No. 3 in the NFL in total offense (394.8) and No. 2 in passing offense (258.9), finishing the season in the NFC Championship Game and as a finalist for AP NFL Assistant Coach of the Year. With the aid of Johnson's leadership of the offense, Detroit accumulated a franchise-record 15 regular-season wins in 2024, ranking No. 2 in the NFL in both total offense (409.5) and passing offense (263.3), while owning the third-best red-zone touchdown percentage (69.4 pct.) and fourth-best third-down conversion rate (47.6) in the league. Johnson spent six total seasons with the Lions, starting in 2019 in an Offensive Quality Control capacity, before being elevated to Tight Ends Coach in 2020, holding that role for two seasons. In his first seasons coaching the tight ends, Johnson's tutelage helped second-year TE T.J. Hockenson earn his first-career Pro Bowl selection after ranking top-five in the league in receiving yards (third), receiving first downs (third) and receptions (fourth) among tight ends.

Prior to Detroit, Johnson served seven seasons on the staff of the Miami Dolphins, working under three different head coaches. Over his seven years in Miami, Johnson worked in the capacities of Offensive Assistant (2012), Assistant Quarterbacks Coach (2013-15), Tight Ends Coach (2015), Assistant Wide Receivers Coach (2016-17) and Wide Receivers Coach (2018).

Working with the Dolphins wide receivers, Johnson aided a group that featured Pro Bowl WR Jarvis Landry who set a franchise-record with an NFL-best 112 receptions in 2017, one season after helping Miami secure 10 wins and reach the postseason. As Wide Receivers Coach in 2018, Johnson helped guide WR Albert Wilson to accumulate an average of 12.9 yards after catch, the second-highest rate among all NFL players.

Prior to his time with the wide receivers, Johnson served as Assistant Quarterbacks Coach (2013-15), before being promoted to Tight Ends Coach following staff realignment in 2015. In 2014, QB Ryan Tannehill became just the second Dolphins passer to throw for 4,000 yards in a single season. Starting with the Dolphins as an Offensive Assistant in 2012, Johnson aided a unit that ranked fourth in the AFC in rushing touchdowns (15).

Johnson entered the coaching ranks as a Graduate Assistant at Boston College (2009-10), spending three years in Chestnut Hill, including the 2011 season as Tight Ends Coach.

Dennis ALLEN
DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

School: Texas A&M University
Hometown: Hurst, Texas

Dennis Allen enters his second season as the Bears Defensive Coordinator in 2026.

Allen is in his 31st season in the coaching profession and second as the Bears' Defensive Coordinator. Allen is a two-time NFL Head Coach, first with the Oakland Raiders in 2012, and again with the New Orleans Saints (2022-24). In New Orleans, he held the role of defensive play-caller for the Saints since the middle of the 2015 season and held the role of Defensive Coordinator until his promotion to Head Coach of the Saints in 2022. In each of his final four full seasons calling the defense, the Saints were the only team to rank top-10 in points per game allowed every season. Over his 14 full seasons with the Saints, Allen contributed to six NFC South Division titles, including the 2009 season which culminated in a World Championship following a victory in Super Bowl XLIV. Over his 24 years of coaching in the NFL, Allen has worked with 20 players who have combined for 38 Pro Bowl selections and has coached two AP NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year winners and three eventual members of the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

In his first season with the Bears in 2025, Allen coordinated a defense that let the NFL in takeaways (33) and interceptions (23), both of which were the highest marks for the franchise since 2018. The Bears converted the takeaways to 104 points off, the second-highest mark in the NFL, helping the Bears capture the NFC North for the first time since 2018. Allen's defense was highlighted by a pair of Pro Bowl defensive backs; DB Kevin Byard and DB Nahshon Wright. Along with his third career Pro Bowl nod, Byard earned First-Team AP All-Pro honors for the third time in his career after leading the NFL with seven interceptions. Wright had a breakout season starting in 16 games and leading the NFL with eight total takeaways (five INTs, three FRs) and earning his first career Pro Bowl honors. LB Tremaine Edmunds led the team with 112 tackles, becoming just the fifth player to amass 100+ tackles in each of his first eight seasons since the stat began being tracked in 1987. DL Montez Sweat led Chicago with 10.0 sacks, the first Bears pass rusher to reach double digit sacks since 2021 (Robert Quinn).

Over his final four full seasons leading New Orleans' defense, including the last two as Head Coach, the Saints had three seasons finishing top-10 in total defense, including two seasons in the top-five (2020 and 2022). In 2023, Allen led a Saints defense that ranked No. 8 in the NFL in opponent points per game (19.2) and ninth in points per game (23.6), the Saints were one of five teams to finish in the top ten in both categories, helping guide the Saints to win four of their last five games, as the team turned in a 9-8 performance, narrowly missing a playoff berth. In addition to finishing eighth in the NFL in scoring defense, New Orleans ranked first in opponent third down and short percentage (40.7) and passes defensed (99), tied for third in interceptions (18), ranked fourth in opponent third down percentage (34.5) and tenth in pass defense (207.3). Leading the charge defensively was LB Demario Davis, who led the team in tackles for the sixth consecutive season, was selected to his second consecutive Pro Bowl and voted an AP All-Pro for the fifth consecutive season.

In his first year as head coach of the Saints in 2022, Allen guided New Orleans to wins in three of their final four games and allow 20 or fewer points in the final eight contests of the season, including ten points apiece in each of the final three contests. Under Allen's supervision, New Orleans ranked second in the NFL in pass defense (184.4), fifth in total defense (314.8), tied for fifth in sacks (48), ranked sixth in opponent red-zone touchdown percentage (50.0) and ninth in scoring defense (20.3).

In 2021, his final season as defensive coordinator before being promoted to head coach, Allen's unit ranked first in the NFL in opponent red-zone touchdown percentage (43.5), finishing No. 2 in the league in opponent first downs (304) and opponent rushing first downs (84), respectively. New Orleans' streak of 22 regular season/postseason contests without allowing a 100-yard rusher at the end of the season was the longest in the NFL. With 25 takeaways and a plus-seven turnover ratio, Allen's defense was instrumental in leading the Saints to their fifth consecutive winning season. Allen handled Head Coach Sean Payton's head coaching duties in a December win over the Tampa Bay Buccaneers as Payton was sidelined due to COVID-19 protocols. Allen's 2020 unit finishing tied for first in interceptions (18), ranked fourth in opponent net yards per game (310.9) and opponent rushing yards per game (91.3), fifth in opponent net passing yards per game (217.0) and opponent points per game (21.1) and eighth in sacks (45). The 139 points given up on the road by New Orleans were the fewest in the NFL and the third-lowest total by the club since the start of a 16-game regular season schedule in 1978. New Orleans did not allow a 100-yard rusher until Week 14 of the season, marking an NFL record of 55 games (postseason included) of not giving up 100 yards to an individual.

The 2019 Saints ranked third in the league in sacks, recording 51 takedowns and finished fourth in run defense at 91.3 yards rushing per game. In 2018, the Saints boasted the second-best run defense in the NFL, allowing just 80.2 rushing yards per game and 3.6 yards per carry.

Allen coordinated a Saints defense in 2017 that finished third in the league in interceptions (20), tied for seventh in sacks (42) and ranked tenth in opponent points per game (20.4) after ranking 31st in 2016. Away from home, New Orleans surrendered only 18.3 points per game, tied for sixth in the NFL, with their 146 road points given up tied for the fifth-lowest total by the club since the start of a 16-game schedule in 1978. Allen oversaw a defense that featured first-team All-Pro DE Cam Jordan who posted 13 sacks and Lattimore, who led rookies with five interceptions and garnered AP Defensive Rookie of the Year honors, as both defenders earned Pro Bowl recognition. In 2016, Allen's group surrendered only 90.6 rushing yards per game over the final 13 weeks of the season, ranking sixth-best in the NFL over that period. After starting the 2015 season as the club's senior defensive assistant, Allen assumed coordinator duties in Week 11. As New Orleans rallied to win three of their final four contests, Allen's unit contributed to finishing strong as the defense surrendered 35.1 total net yards per game below the overall season average, including 25.1 fewer yards per game in stopping the run. New Orleans also held opponents to a season-low 17 points in two of the final four contests.

Prior to his return to New Orleans, Allen served as the Head Coach of the Oakland Raiders from 2012-14. In his second season at the helm, Allen guided a defense that recorded 38 sacks, 13 more than 2012. Allen's group limited opposing offenses to just five runs of 20-or-more yards, tied for the fewest in the league, and kept opponents to less than two yards per carry three times.

Allen spent the 2011 season as Defensive Coordinator of the Denver Broncos, leading a defense that propelled Denver to win the AFC West Division title and advance to the AFC Divisional Round with a win in the AFC Wild Card Round. The defense produced four Pro Bowl selections as rookie linebacker Von Miller joined CB Champ Bailey, S Brian Dawkins and DE Elvis Dumervil on the AFC squad. Miller set what was the team's rookie record with 11.5 sacks en route to AP NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year honors. The Broncos' 41 sacks marked the unit's most since 2000.

Allen spent five season with New Orleans as an assistant from 2006-10 before returning in 2015. His first opportunity leading an NFL position group arose in 2008 with the Saints, elevating from Assistant Defensive Line Coach (2006-07) to Secondary Coach (2008-10) in New Orleans. In his second season as Secondary Coach, Allen's tutelage with the defensive backfield helped the Saints finish the season as World Champions following a victory in Super Bowl XLIV.

Allen contributed to a defensive coaching staff that engineered significant improvement from 2009-10, when the club went 24-8 in the regular season, qualified for the playoffs both times and captured Super Bowl XLIV. Under Allen's direction in 2010, the Saints allowed an NFL-low 13 touchdown passes, while New Orleans ranked fourth in both opponent net yards per game (306.3) and pass defense (193.9) and fifth in opponent third down efficiency (34.5). Safety Roman Harper was selected to his second consecutive Pro Bowl and cornerback Jabari Greer recorded two interceptions with one brought back for a touchdown. In 2009, Allen tutored a secondary that played a key role in helping the Saints to the club's first Super Bowl victory. A revamped unit accounted for an NFL-high five interception returns for touchdowns and totaled 21 picks with two starters being selected to the Pro Bowl. Opposing quarterbacks managed a meager 68.6 passer rating against the Saints, which ranked No. 3 in the NFL. While serving as assistant defensive line coach from 2006-07, Allen helped develop a unit that ranked as one of the defense's strengths. During that stretch, the front four combined for 49.5 sacks, ten forced fumbles and ten recoveries.

Allen's first NFL coaching tenure occurred in 2002, where he spent the next four seasons aiding the defensive staff of the Atlanta Falcons in Defensive Quality Control and Defensive Assistant capacities, spending time working with secondary and the defensive line. In 2004, Atlanta led the NFL for the first time in club history with 48 sacks, and in 2002, Allen's first year with the Falcons, he assisted in coaching the defensive backfield, as Atlanta tied for third in the NFL with 24 interceptions. Allen entered the coaching ranks at his alma mater, Texas A&M, as a graduate assistant in 1996, working with the defensive backs, before rising to Secondary Coach at Tulsa (2000).

A native of Hurst, Texas, Allen prepped collegiately at Texas A&M, starting each of the final 21 games of his career at safety for the Aggies. Following his collegiate career, Allen signed with the Buffalo Bills as an undrafted free agent, spending training camp with the club.

Allen and his wife, Alisson, have two children – Layla and Garrison.

Press TAYLOR

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

School: Marshall University
Hometown: Norman, Okla.

Press Taylor elevates to the role of Offensive Coordinator for the Bears in 2026, his second season with Chicago after joining the staff in 2025 as Pass Game Coordinator.

Last season, as Pass Game Coordinator, Taylor helped lead a passing attack that featured QB Caleb Williams setting a franchise single-season record with 3,942 passing yards in the regular season, adding a 361-yard passing performance in the NFC Wild Card Round win over Green Bay, a single-game club record in the postseason. Chicago's offense finished the regular season with the fewest giveaways in the NFL (11), and the second-most points scored off of takeaways in the league (104). Over the final 10 weeks of the regular season, Chicago amassed 109 points in the fourth quarter and OT, the most by any team in the NFL. The Bears culminated the regular season with 441 points scored, third-most in a single season in franchise history.

Taylor arrived in Chicago in 2025 after spending three seasons as Offensive Coordinator of the Jacksonville Jaguars (2022-24). Over his three seasons with Jacksonville, Taylor coordinated a unit that helped the Jaguars reach the postseason and rank among some of the league's top passing offensive units, while also playing an instrumental role in the continued development of Pro Bowl QB Trevor Lawrence. In 2023, Taylor helped guide an offense that propelled Lawrence to throw for over 4,000 yards, as the Jaguars marked their second-straight season with a 4,000-yard passer, 1,000-yard receiver (WR Calvin Ridley) and 1,000-yard rusher (RB Travis Etienne Jr.), as Jacksonville ranked top-10 in the NFL in passing offense for the second-straight year. In his first season with the Jaguars, Taylor helped lead an offense that recorded the most scrimmage yards in a single season in franchise history (6,264), as Jacksonville secured an AFC South Division title and AFC Wild Card Round victory. As a unit, the Jaguars totaled the most first downs (352) in a single season in team history and accumulated the third-most points in club annals (404).

Prior to Jacksonville, Taylor spent one season as Senior Offensive Assistant (2021) with the Indianapolis Colts. In his lone season with the Colts, Taylor helped coach an offensive unit that featured AP First-Team All-Pro RB Jonathan Taylor, who led the NFL with 1,811 rushing yards and a league-best 18 rushing touchdowns. As a group, the Colts owned the No. 2-ranked rushing offense in the NFL in 2021 (149.4), finishing top-10 in the league in points per game (26.5).

Before Indianapolis, Taylor spent eight seasons in a variety of elevating roles with the Philadelphia Eagles, contributing to a staff that accumulated three NFC North Division titles for Philadelphia, including a World Championship in 2017 after defeating the New England Patriots in Super Bowl LII. Taylor began his tenure with the Eagles in an Offensive Quality Control capacity (2013-15), before adding the responsibility of Assistant Quarterbacks Coach in 2016, a role he would occupy for two seasons. Taylor was then elevated to Quarterbacks Coach in 2018 following the Eagles' World Championship, guiding the Eagles quarterbacks for three seasons with the addition of Passing Game Coordinator duties in 2020.

During his tenure with the Eagles, Taylor was instrumental in his work with quarterbacks Carson Wentz and Nick Foles. As Wentz's primary coach over three seasons, the signal-caller set single-season franchise records in passing yards (4,039 in 2019), pass completions (388 in 2019) and completion percentage (69.6 in 2018). Over their tenure together, Wenz would become just the sixth quarterback in NFL history to secure at least 20 passing touchdowns and 10 or fewer interceptions in three-consecutive seasons (2017-19). In his first season as Quarterbacks Coach, Taylor's tutelage helped Foles close out the regular season with three victories in five starts, including a Week 16 performance that featured 471 passing yards, four passing touchdowns and a 120.4 passer rating to earn NFC Offensive Player of the Week honors, and a Week 17 win at Washington that was highlighted by Foles' 25-straight pass completions.

In 2017, Taylor helped guide a room that started with Wentz completing 265-of-440 passes for 3,296 yards and 33 touchdowns, a single-season franchise record, to only seven interceptions, registering a 101.9 passer rating over his first 13 games. Following an injury to Wenz, Foles stepped into duty, leading the Eagles with three postseason performances of at least a 100.0 passer rating and guiding Philadelphia to a World Championship with a victory in Super Bowl LII. Wentz would later earn AP Second-Team All-Pro honors, as Foles was named Super Bowl LII Most Valuable Player.

As offensive quality control coach from 2013-15, Philadelphia ranked third in the NFL in total offense (392.8), fourth in rushing offense (131.1), sixth in scoring offense (23.9), sixth in total offensive touchdowns (132) and eighth in passing offense (261.5) during the three-season span. In 2014, the Eagles set single-season franchise records in points scored (474), touchdowns accumulated (54), passing yards (4,581) and first downs earned (356).

Prior to his eight seasons with the Eagles, Taylor served as a Graduate Assistant at Tulsa (2011-12), working with the quarterbacks. Taylor guided QB G.J. Kinne to over 3,000 passing yards and 28 passing touchdowns in 2011, before helping Tulsa claim a Conference USA Championship and Liberty Bowl victory in 2012.

A native of Norman, Okla., Taylor played quarterback at Marshall (2009-10) after starting his career at Butler (Kan.) Community College (2007-08), where he served as a team captain and led Butler to back-to-back Junior College National Championships with a 17-1 record as a starter.

Taylor and his wife, Brooklyn, have four children – Teale, Carolina Leigh, Woods and Billy.

Richard HIGHTOWER

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR

School: University of Texas
Hometown: Houston, Texas

Richard Hightower is in his fifth season as the Chicago Bears special teams coordinator in 2026 and his sixth year overall in Chicago after previously serving as the club's assistant special teams coach in 2016. Hightower is in his 20th season of NFL coaching, which has included stops with the Houston Texans (2006-08), Washington Commanders (2010-13), Cleveland Browns (2014), San Francisco 49ers (2015; 2017-21) and Chicago Bears (2016; 2022-present).

In 2025, Hightower led a special teams unit that featured K Cairo Santos, who reached 25 field goals made of 50+ yards with the Bears, establishing a new franchise record. While P Tory Taylor broke his own franchise record with a 47.8 yard punting average. The Bears special teams unit earned two NFC Special Teams Player of the Week honors in 2025. In Week 4, DB Josh Blackwell earned the award after blocking a potential Raiders go ahead field goal with less than a minute to play sealing the Bears second victory of the season. In Week 16, Santos earned the award going 3-3 on field goal attempts, connecting on a game tying extra point and executing a successful onsides kick in windy conditions to force overtime in the Bears' victory over the Packers. Santos' Week 16 award was the Bears fifth Special Teams Player of the Week honor since the start of the 2024 season, tied with the Pittsburgh Steelers for the most such honors (five) over that span. In postseason play, Santos connected on a 51-yard field goal in the Bears Wild Card victory, the longest in franchise postseason history. WR/RS Devin Duvernay posted 97 total punt return yards during the playoff run, the most in a single postseason in Bears history.

In 2024, under Hightower's leadership, three separate Bears received NFC Special Teams Player of the Week honors, marking the second time in franchise history that at least three separate individuals were recipients of the award in a single season. Hightower's group featured the continued success of K Cairo Santos, who set a new single-season franchise record with a career-high eight made field goals of 50-plus yards, highlighted by a game-winning 53-yard field goal in Week 18 to defeat the division-rival Packers in Green Bay. Rookie P Tory Taylor arrived and made his impact felt, as Hightower's leadership of the group helped Taylor set franchise records for both net punting average (41.6) and gross punting average (47.7) in a single season, finishing tied for fourth in the NFL with 34 punts downed inside of the opponent's 20 yard-line. Taylor played a key role in the Bears victory over the Los Angeles Rams in Week 4, leading him to earning Player of the Week honors after dominating field position and putting the Bears defense in an advantageous position. His 55.4 yards per punt put the Bears in prime field position throughout the entirety of the game. Hightower also guided TE Cole Kmet (Week 6) and DB Josh Blackwell (Week 18) to earn NFC Special Teams Player of the Week honors. Blackwell logged the first punt returned for a touchdown by the Bears since the 2021 season, a 94-yard return score in Week 18 that tied for the third-longest punt return touchdown in team history. Kmet honorably fulfilled long-snapping duties in Chicago's Week 6 win over the Jaguars in London. Hightower's crew also secured two blocked punts in 2024, the most by any team in the league. The two blocked punts marked the first time that the club has had multiple blocked punts in a single season since 2008. The first blocked punt was returned for a touchdown by DB Jonathan Owens for the Bears' first touchdown of the year. The touchdown sparked momentum for the Bears to overcome a 17-point deficit in the third quarter. In Week 12 vs. Minnesota, Chicago recovered an onside kick in the fourth quarter, making Chicago's special teams unit the first team in the league to successfully recover an onside kick this season. In the return phase, Hightower guided a unit that featured WR DeAndre Carter handling return duties, registering a 31.9-yard kickoff return average, the second-highest rate in the NFL among all returners with at least 15 kickoff returns in 2024.

In 2023, the club saw a career-year from K Cairo Santos. He went 35-38 on field goals and 31-33 on extra points on the season and set the Bears single-season record for field goals. He also set career-highs in field goals made, points scored (136) and field goals made from 50+ yards (seven). Santos was named NFC Special Teams Player of the Month in November. In the return game the Bears finished top five in the NFC in kickoff returns (18, second), kickoff return yards (470, third) and kickoff return average (26.1, fourth).

In Hightower's first year as the Bears special teams coordinator, the Bears finished as one of the top special teams units across the league in several categories: they led the NFL in fewest penalties committed, were second in the NFL in special teams takeaways, second in the league in kickoff return average (fifth in drive start position), second in the NFL in opponent field goal percentage, third in the NFL in tackles inside the 20-yard line on kickoff while also posting the third-highest net punt average in Bears history.

Individually, Santos connected on 21-of-23 field goal attempts (91.3%). In doing so, he became the most accurate kicker in Bears history (min. 80 attempts), knocking in 78-of-87 (89.7%) field goals in a Bears uniform. Newcomer Trenton Gill finished the 2022 regular season logging 66 punts and compiled a 46.0 average (40.3 net). Gill's net average is the third-highest single-season net average dating back to 1920, and the 46.0 average was the fourth-highest single-season average in franchise history. In the return game, Jones showed growth as a kick returner, producing an average of 27.6 yards on 22 returns, good for the 12th-highest single-season kick return average in Bears history (min. 15 attempts).

Prior to his arrival in Chicago, Hightower spent the 2017-21 seasons in San Francisco as the club's special teams coordinator. During the 2021 season, the 49ers' special teams played a key role in the team's postseason run to the NFC Championship game. In the divisional round win at the Packers, Hightower's unit blocked a punt for a touchdown late in the fourth quarter to tie the game, and also converted on the game-winning field goal as time expired. They also blocked a field goal as time expired going into halftime to keep it a one-possession game. Then to open the second half, Deebo Samuel set the 49ers up with great field position with a 45-yard kickoff return.

Punter Mitch Wishnowsky had an outstanding year in 2021. He earned his second-career NFC Special Teams Player of the Week honor following Week 2 after his outing against the Eagles where he recorded two punts that pinned Philadelphia inside their own 10-yard line, neither resulting in points, and finished the day with five punts for 226 yards (45.2 average) with three landing inside the 20. He also earned NFC Special Teams Player of the Month honors for September. That month, Wishnowsky registered 11 punts for 515 yards (46.8 average), including a long of 59. Those 11 punts were returned for a total of only 19 yards and of his 11 punts, six landed inside the opposition's 20-yard line. Wishnowsky and special teamer Trenton Cannon also were named Pro Bowl alternates following the 2021 season.

From 2017-20, the 49ers kicking unit tied for second in the NFL in made field goals (124) and fifth in field goal percentage (88.6). In addition, San Francisco's punt coverage ranked second over that time span, holding opponent punt returns to an average of 6.2 yards per return.

In 2020, Hightower helped Wishnowsky record the ninth-most punts inside the 20-yard line (25) in the NFL while finishing in the top-12 in both net (41.6, 12th) and gross (46.9, 11th) average. Kicker Robbie Gould converted 19 of 23 field goals (82.6 percent) and earned NFL Special Teams Player of the Week honors in Week 12.

In 2019, Hightower led the 49ers special teams unit that had an average starting field position of the 32.1-yard line, ranking second in the NFL. San Francisco also held opponents to an average starting field position of the 24.7-yard line, which ranked seventh. Kicker Robbie Gould connected on 23 of 31 field goal attempts and finished the season with 110 points, marking his third-consecutive 100-or-more point season with the 49ers. He was also named Special Teams Player of the Month for December for the third-consecutive season since joining the 49ers in 2017. Wishnowsky registered a 44.9 punt average which ranked second among all rookies in franchise history (min. 20 punts) and wide receiver Richie James Jr. ranked seventh in the NFL in punt return average (8.0) and 10th in kickoff return average (21.4).

Under Hightower in 2018, San Francisco's special teams units flourished. Gould set the 49ers single-season franchise record for field goal percentage (97.1), as he connected on 33 of 34 field goal attempts and finished the season with 126 points. He also set the franchise record for most consecutive field goals made (33) and finished the season connecting on each of his final 23 attempts. Gould was named NFC Special Teams Player of the Month for December and was a two-time recipient of the NFC Special Teams Player of the Week Award (Week 2 & 15).

Rookie James Jr. was named All-NFC kick returner by the PFWA as he averaged 25.2 yards per kickoff return, which ranked seventh in the NFL. James Jr. also registered the team's first kickoff return for a touchdown (97 yards) since 2011.

In 2017, the 49ers special teams units excelled under Hightower's guidance. In his first season with the 49ers, Gould had a career year, leading the NFL with a career-high 39 made field goals and finishing third in the NFL with a career-high 145 points. Gould's 39 made field goals were the second-most in a single-season in franchise history (K David Akers – 44 made field goals in 2011) and tied for the third-most in a single-season in NFL history. P Bradley Pinion set a career high with a 41.3 net punting average and the punt coverage unit ranked second in the NFL, allowing 4.2 yards per return. The 4.2 opponent punt return average was the eighth-best in the NFL since 2001.

As an assistant special teams coach with Chicago in 2016, the Bears kickoff coverage team finished seventh in the NFL in opponent drive start average. Kickoff returner Deonte Thompson led the NFL in kickoff returns with 35 and ranked second with 810 yards. Punt returner Eddie Royal scored on a 65-yard touchdown on Monday Night Football against the Philadelphia Eagles, while cornerback Sherrick McManis led the Bears in special teams tackles and finished top 10 in the NFL, recording 13 stops.

In 2015, Hightower first joined San Francisco as an assistant special teams coach. That season, Hightower helped the 49ers punt coverage unit rank eighth in the NFL allowing just 6.4 yards per return, while working with rookie punter Bradley Pinion. Kicker Phil Dawson was 10th in the NFL with an 88.9 field goal percentage (tied for the fourth highest percentage of his 17-year career at the time).

Hightower spent the 2014 season working on offense in Cleveland assisting the wide receivers after working as an assistant special teams coach for four seasons in Washington (2010-13). With Washington, he worked under longtime special teams coordinator Danny Smith. Hightower also spent two seasons (2012-13) as the assistant defensive backs coach with Washington. Over his four seasons in Washington, they ranked third in the NFL in kickoff coverage, allowing just 21.2 yards per return, including leading the league in 2010 and 2011. Hightower's coaching on special teams helped linebacker Lorenzo Alexander lead the NFL with 21 special teams tackles en route to being named the NFC's special teams player in the Pro Bowl, in 2012. Hightower was also instrumental in the development of first-year kicker Kai Forbath, who broke an NFL record by hitting his first 17 field goal attempts and led the NFL with a 94.4 field goal percentage.

As assistant defensive back coach, Hightower helped the unit rank sixth in the NFL in interceptions (37) and tied for second in the NFL in interception returns for touchdowns (seven) over the two-year span. DeAngelo Hall led the NFL in defensive touchdowns (three). In 2012, Washington ranked first in the NFC in passes defensed and had four returned touchdowns.

From 2006-08, Hightower was on Houston's coaching staff as a coaching assistant (2006-07) before being elevated to special teams assistant (2008). In Houston, he served under widely respected then-special teams coordinator Joe Marciano, who had more than 30 years of experience coaching special teams at the time. In 2008, Houston was 11th in the NFL in kickoff coverage (22.3 yards per return). Punt returner Jacoby Jones finished fifth in the NFL and second in Houston single-season annals with a 12.1 average, including a franchise single-season record two punt return touchdowns. Kicker Kris Brown set franchise records for points (124), field goals made (29) and field goal percentage (87.9). In 2007, the kickoff return unit featuring wide receiver's Jerome Mathis and Andre Davis became only the fourth team in NFL history to score four touchdowns on kickoff returns in a single season.

In between his time in Houston and Washington, Hightower spent the 2009 season as wide receivers coach at the University of Minnesota. Under his tutelage, wide receiver Eric Decker was named a First-Team All-Big Ten selection that season before being selected by the Denver Broncos in the third round (87th overall) of the 2010 NFL Draft.

A native of Houston, Hightower earned his bachelor's degree in marketing from the University of Texas where he was a three-year letterman and special teams standout for the Longhorns. He went to Austin as an academic scholar and later earned an athletic scholarship after walking on. Following his senior season, then-head coach Mack Brown and his staff voted Hightower the D. Harold Byrd Leadership Award winner.

Hightower and his wife, Lanet, have two sons, Jaxson and Kaden, and a daughter, Reagan.

School: University of Alabama at Birmingham
Hometown: Birmingham, Ala.

Anthony Blevins is in his second season as an Assistant Special Teams Coach in 2026.

Blevins possesses 22 years of coaching experience, including 11 seasons on NFL sidelines. Prior to joining Chicago's Staff in 2025, Blevins spent a portion of the 2024 season with the Birmingham Stallions of the UFL, after five years with the Arizona Cardinals (2013-17) as their Assistant Special Teams Coach, before a five-season tenure with the New York Giants (2018-22) in a variety of roles, working with the special teams units, linebackers and defensive backs.

In 2025, Blevins helped lead a special teams unit that featured K Cairo Santos, who reached 25 field goals made of 50+ yards with the Bears, establishing a new franchise record. While P Tory Taylor broke his own franchise record with a 47.8 yard punting average. The Bears special teams unit earned two NFC Special Teams Player of the Week honors in 2025. In Week 4, DB Josh Blackwell earned the award after blocking a potential Raiders go ahead field goal with less than a minute to play sealing the Bears second victory of the season. In Week 16, Santos earned the award going 3-3 on field goal attempts, connecting on a game tying extra point and executing a successful onsides kick in windy conditions to force overtime in the Bears victory over the Packers. In postseason play, Santos connected on a 51-yard field goal in the Bears Wild Card victory, the longest in franchise postseason history. WR/RS Devin Duvernay posted 97 total punt return yards during the playoff run, the most in a single postseason in Bears history.

Blevins aided a Birmingham Stallions defense that propelled the team to their third-straight league championship, first as a member of the United Football League. The Stallions started the 2024 season winning each of their first eight games, holding opponents to less than 20 points in each of their first five outings. Closing out the season strong, Birmingham's defense held the opposition again to less than 20 points in both postseason games, including a 25-0 shutout victory in the UFL Championship over the San Antonio Brahmas.

Over his five seasons with the Giants, Blevins occupied a variety of roles on New York's coaching staff. Bookending his tenure with the Giants in an assistant special teams capacity, Blevins transitioned to Assistant Defensive Backs Coach in 2020, before moving to tutor the linebackers in an Assistant Linebackers / Special Teams Assistant role in 2021. In 2021, Blevins contributed to a linebackers group that featured LB Tae Crowder leading the team with 130 tackles, as rookie LB Azeez Ojulari set the franchise's rookie record with eight sacks. The Giants also held opponents to a league-low 17.8 yards per kickoff return, as Gano kicked a Giants-record seven field goals of 50+ yards. As Assistant Defensive Backs Coach in 2020, the Giants' pass defense jumped from 28th in the league in 2019 to a tie for 16th, as CB James Bradberry was selected to his first Pro Bowl after tying for second in the NFL with 18 passes defensed.

Over his first two seasons with New York, the Giants were fourth and 10th, respectively, in the NFL in punt (9.8 yards) and kickoff (23.5 yards) return average, as his group led the league in 2019 by allowing an average return of just 18.1 yards per kickoff return and the punt coverage team was tied for fifth as opponents averaged only 5.7 yards a return. In his first season with New York, Blevins' unit featured K Aldrick Rosas, who was selected to the Pro Bowl and was named AP Second-Team All-Pro after making 32 of 33 field goal attempts. Blevins also helped mentor S Micheal Thomas, who was selected to his first Pro-Bowl following the season.

Before his time with the Giants, Blevins spent five years with the Arizona Cardinals as a Coaching Assistant / Special Teams Coach. Blevins contributed to a staff that helped special teamer Justin Bethel get selected to three consecutive Pro Bowls (2013-15) after leading the team in special teams tackles each season. In 2013 and 2015, Bethel was named first-team All-NFL by the Pro Football Writers Association. All-Pro K Chandler Catanzaro tied the NFL record for the most consecutive field goals to begin a career (17) and established a franchise rookie record with 114 points in 2014. The following season, Catanzaro finished third in the NFL with 137 points, which was also the second-highest single-season total in franchise history. In 2017, Blevins coached rookie S Budda Baker, who was selected as the NFC special teams representative in the Pro Bowl. Over his tenure, Blevins also served as the Recruiting Coordinator at the University of Tennessee at Martin (2008), where he also led the cornerbacks group. Dray enters his ninth season overall in coaching, having made additional stops with the Arizona Cardinals (2020-21), Cleveland Browns (2019) and at his alma mater, Stanford University (2018).

In 2025, Dray oversaw a group of tight ends that contributed over 1,000 receiving yards. Rookie TE Colston Loveland led all Bears pass catchers with 713 receiving yards in the regular season. His six receiving touchdowns were tied for the most among all rookie tight ends in the NFL in 2025. From Week 9 to the end of the regular season, Loveland's 597 receiving yards led all NFL rookies. In the postseason, Loveland set an NFL playoff record for a rookie tight end with 198 receiving yards, also ranking third among all pass catches in a single postseason in Bears history. TE Cole Kmet continued to climb up the Bears all-time tight end charts. During the 2025 season, Kmet reached 2,939 career receiving yards and 21 receiving touchdowns, both trail only PFHOF TE Mike Ditka for most by a tight end in franchise history.

In 2024, Dray led a tight end group that served as an outlet helping rookie QB Caleb Williams set Bears all-time rookie and franchise passing records. TE Cole Kmet led the group with 474 receiving yards on 47 receptions, 25 going for first downs and four touchdown grabs. Among tight ends in Bears history, Kmet moved to second in receptions (258), second in first down receptions (129, since 1994), third in touchdowns (19) and fourth in receiving yards (2,592). TE Marcedes Lewis continued to be a veteran presence, breaking the all-time NFL record for games played at tight end, finishing the season with 285 career games played.

In his second year coaching the tight ends, Dray's unit saw a career year from fourth-year tight end Cole Kmet. He accounted for 719 receiving yards on 73 catches (9.8 avg.) with six receiving touchdowns. His 719 receiving yards were the second-most among Bears pass-catchers in 2023. On the season, Kmet set career-highs in catches (73) and yards (719). His six touchdowns were his second most in a season in his career (7, 2022). Among all tight ends in the NFL in 2023, Kmet ranked tied for second in receiving touchdowns (6), tied for seventh in receptions (73), eighth in first downs (36) and ninth in receiving yards (719). All-time among Bears tight ends, Kmet ranks third in receptions (211), and fourth in touchdowns (15), first downs (104) and receiving yards (2,118). Veteran tight end Marcedes Lewis also provided leadership to the group in 2023. With his start against the Cardinals, Lewis passed Aaron Rodgers for most the starts by an active player (225). He is one of only three tight ends in NFL history to start 200+ regular season games and post 400+ receptions (436) (Gonzales & Witten). He also ranks first in games played (268) among active players. Against the Falcons in Week 17, Lewis caught his first touchdown of the season and 40th of his career. Under Garrett's tutelage, DL Gervon Dexter Sr. (6.0) and DL Austin Booker (4.5) both set new career highs in sacks. The Bears defensive line contributed to a defense that had 33 takeaways, the most in the NFL.

In 2024, Garrett's work with the Jaguars front yielded immediate results, as DE Travon Walker totaled a career-high 10.5 sacks to lead the unit, as DE Josh Hines-Allen registered his fourth-straight season with at least 10 tackles for loss, the longest streak in franchise history, and DT DaVon Hamilton graded out as one of the best run defenders in the NFL. In a Week 5 win over Indianapolis, Walker collected a career-high three sacks, before logging the fourth-longest fumble recovery for a touchdown by a defensive lineman in club history (35 yards) in Week 9. At season's end, Hines-Allen reached 63 career tackles for loss, setting the all-time franchise record.

Al HARRIS

PASS GAME COORDINATOR / DEFENSIVE BACKS

School: Texas A&M University Kingsville
Hometown: Pompano Beach, Fla.

Al Harris enters his second season with the Bears in 2026.

A 15-year NFL veteran in the secondary, earning All-Pro honors and two Pro Bowl selections as a cornerback, Harris is in his 15th season as a coach. Before joining the Bears in 2025, he served as Assistant Head Coach / Defensive Backs Coach for the Dallas Cowboys in 2024, a role that he was elevated to after leading Dallas' secondary since 2020. Over his last four seasons in Dallas, Harris' defensive backs helped Dallas own the most interceptions by any team in the NFL over the four-year span, amassing a league-high 72 interceptions from 2021-24.

In his first season with the Bears, Harris helped lead a defense that led the NFL in takeaways (33) and interceptions (23), with the defensive backs accounting for 23 total takeaways (INTs and FRs) and 17 of the teams' interceptions. The Bears secondary had two players selected to the Pro Bowl, DB Kevin Byard and DB Nahshon Wright. Byard was also named First-Team AP All-Pro, receiving both honors for the third time in his career. Byard, a team captain, led the NFL with seven interceptions during the 2025 season. Wright earned his first Pro Bowl nod after leading the NFL with eight total takeaways (five INTs, three FRs). After joining the Bears before Week 9 of the season, DB C.J. Gardner-Johnson made an immediate impact under Harris' direction, becoming just the second DB to have three sacks in his first two games with a new team since sacks became an official stat in 1982. Gardner-Johnson's three sacks ranked tied for the second most by any defensive back in the NFL during the 2025 season.

Harris' guidance helped the Cowboys own the No. 5 and No. 8-ranked pass defense in the NFL in 2023 (187.4) and 2022 (200.9), respectively. On top of success as a unit, Harris was instrumental in the development of CB Trevon Diggs and the continued growth of CB DaRon Bland. Under Harris, Diggs accumulated two Pro Bowl selections and an AP First-Team All-Pro nod (2021), as Bland set an NFL record with five interceptions returned for a touchdown in 2023, while also leading the league in interceptions (nine). In 2021, Diggs secured an NFL-best 11 interceptions, tied for the most by any player in a single season in Cowboys history, en route to an All-Pro acknowledgement with Harris' support. Diggs became the first Cowboys cornerback to earn Pro Bowl recognition in back-to-back years since Hall of Famer Deion Sanders (1996-99). As a rookie in 2020, Diggs led all Cowboys defenders in interceptions (three) and passes defensed (14).

Prior to Dallas, Harris spent one season as a Defensive Assistant at Florida Atlantic University (2019) following a six-year stretch with the Kansas City Chiefs. Starting as a Defensive Assistant in 2013, Harris contributed to a Chiefs team that went to the playoffs in five of his six seasons, collecting three AFC West Division titles, including an AFC Championship appearance in 2018. Coaching the defensive backfield, Harris oversaw a group that finished top-10 in the league in interception all but one of his six seasons, including a No. 1 ranking in 2016 (19 interceptions) and a top-three finish in both 2013 (T-3rd, 21) and 2015 (2nd, 22). Under Harris' guidance, Marcus Peters totaled 19 interceptions in his three seasons with the Chiefs (2015-17), the most by any player in the NFL over that span. Harris entered the coaching ranks in 2012 as a Coaching Intern with the Miami Dolphins.

Harris played 15 seasons in the NFL, appearing in over 200 career games (postseason included), tallying 21 interceptions for the Philadelphia Eagles (1998-2002), Green Bay Packers (2003-09), Miami Dolphins (2010) and St. Louis Rams (2011) after being selected by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 1997. A member of the Green Bay Packers Hall of Fame, Harris earned two Pro Bowl selections (2007 and '08) and was an AP Second-Team All-Pro selection in 2007 in 2007 with the Packers. Hometown: Monroe, La.

Johnson is in his second season as Senior Defensive Assistant with the Bears in 2026.

A veteran coach, Johnson has over 45 years of coaching experience including nearly 20 seasons coaching NFL defensive lines. Before joining the Bears staff, Johnson spent three seasons coaching in the USFL/UFL with the Birmingham Stallions and the Houston Roughnecks. He helped the Stallions capture two league championships, winning the USFL in 2022 and the UFL in 2024.

In 2025, coaching primarily the defensive line, Johnson helped lead a defense that led the NFL in takeaways with 33. On the defensive line, DL Montez Sweat recorded 10.0 regular seasons sacks, reaching double digits for the second time in his career. Sweat recorded at least one sack from Week 7-10, becoming the first Bears player to have a sack in four straight games since he did so with the franchise in 2023. From Week 7 on, Sweat recorded nine sacks, the fifth most in the NFC. Sweat also added a sack in the Bears NFC Divisional Round game, the second postseason sack of his career. DL Gervon Dexter Sr. (6.0) and DL Austin Booker (4.5) both set new career highs in sacks.

Before coaching in the professional spring leagues, Johnson spent three seasons at LSU, first as the defensive line coach (2019-21) then as a defensive analyst. During his three seasons in Baton Rouge, the Tigers went 26-12, highlighted by a 15-0 record en route to winning the College Football Playoffs National Championship. In 2019 he helped lead a group that finished third in the SEC. Johnson coached DL Rashard Lawrence to Second-Team All-SEC honors to anchor the group.

Johnson's last stint in the NFL came as the defensive line coach for the Rams (2017-18). In his two seasons with the Rams, they captured back-to-back division titles for the first time since 1978-79 and advanced to their first Super Bowl since 2002. In 2018, the Rams finished the season tied for the best record in the NFL (13-3) advancing all the way to Super Bowl LIII. In 2018, Rams DT Aaron Donald posted a career-high 20.5 sacks, tied for the eighth most in an NFL season since the stat became official in 1982. The historic season propelled him to his second consecutive Associated Press Defensive Player of the Year Award, becoming one of just eight players to win the award multiple times. Donald also won the award in 2017, becoming the first player in Rams history to be honored with that award and the first DT to be named DPOY since 1999.

Prior to his time with the Rams, Johnson spent eight years in charge of the Saints' defensive line (2009-16). In 2015, DE Cameron Jordan became the ninth player in team history to record multiple seasons with double-digit sacks. In addition, under Johnson's guidance, Jordan earned two Pro Bowl appearances. In his third NFL season in 2012, Jordan finished fifth in the NFL with 12.5 sacks. In Johnson's debut season with the Saints in 2009, DE Will Smith finished the year fifth in the NFL with a career-high 13.0 sacks en route to a Super Bowl XLIV victory.

In his stop before New Orleans, Johnson spent the 2007-08 seasons as the defensive line coach with the Denver Broncos and a six-year stint in Atlanta as defensive line coach of the Falcons (2001-06). With his help, the Falcons led the NFL in sacks during the 2004 season, eventually advancing to the NFC Championship game. Johnson led DE Patrick Kerney to three double-digit sack seasons and a 2004 Pro Bowl selection. He also led DT Rod Coleman to a 10.5 sack season and Pro Bowl appearance in 2005.

Before entering the NFL ranks, Johnson spent 21 seasons coaching at the collegiate level with his final 13 seasons in that stretch as a defensive line coach. His stops included: two seasons at Louisiana Tech (1988-89), three seasons over two stints at Arkansas (1990-91, 2000) and eight seasons at Texas A&M (1992-99). With the Aggies, he mentored nine defensive linemen who were drafted into the NFL. Johnson's prior coaching stops included Miami (Fla.) (1987), McNeese State (1985-86), and his alma mater Northwestern State (1980-84).

Kevin KOCH

ASSISTANT LINEBACKERS

School: Minnesota State University
Hometown: Elmhurst, Ill.

Kevin Koch enters his fifth season with the Bears and second as Assistant Linebackers Coach in 2026.

Prior to being elevated to Assistant Linebackers Coach in 2025, Koch spent two seasons with Chicago in a Defensive Quality Control capacity, after initially joining the Bears as a Coaching Assistant in 2023.

Last season, Koch helped lead a linebacker room that featured LB Tremaine Edmunds, who led the team with 112 tackles, becoming the fifth player to have 100+ tackles in each of his first eight NFL seasons since the stat began being tracked in 1987. Edmunds also contributed a career-high tying four interceptions, the third most by a linebacker in the NFL in 2025 and tied for the eight-most among all players. The linebacker room also featured veteran LB T.J. Edwards, and Week 14 NFC Defensive Player of the Week, LB D'Marco Jackson, both of whom each had an interception in the regular season, contributing to the Bears league-leading tally of 23 interceptions. Koch also has aided in the development of LB Noah Sewell over the past two seasons. In 2025, Sewell logged a forced fumble, adding to the Bears league-leading 33 total takeaways.

In 2024, Koch's work with the defense helped the Bears register five red-zone takeaways, tied for third-most by any team in the NFL. Chicago also finished the season ranking third in the NFL in opponent red-zone touchdown percentage (46.0). Primarily working with the linebackers, Koch aided a unit that featured LB Tremaine Edmunds and LB T.J. Edwards each logging over 100 total tackles, becoming one of just four pairs of duos to record at least 100 tackles on the same team each of the last two seasons (IND: Franklin/Speed, CIN: Pratt/Wilson, JAX: Lloyd/Oluokun). With Koch's assistance, Edmunds ranks No. 10 in the NFL in total tackles since 2018, as Edwards owns the second-most tackles by any NFC defender since the start of the 2023 season (282).

In 2023, his first year as a Defensive Quality Control, Koch aided a Bears defense that limited the opposition to an average of just 86.4 rushing yards per game, the No. 1 rushing defense in the NFL, and collected the most interceptions in the league (22). Edwards finished 2023 with a career-high 153 total tackles (90 solo), as he led or shared the lead in tackles for the Bears in 11 games, as Edmunds totaled four interceptions to go along with his 113 total tackles (69 solo). Developing the entire linebacker room, rookie LB Noah Sewell would appear in 13 games for the Bears.

Prior to elevating to Defensive Quality Control, Koch spent his first season with the Bears as a Coaching Assistant in 2022, serving as an integral part of the coaching staff's day-to-day operation and weekly game preparations.

Koch joined the Bears after five years at Northwestern University (2017-21). After spending his first two seasons as a Graduate Assistant, was promoted to Defensive Quality Control Analyst for his final three years with the Wildcats. Over his five seasons at Northwestern, the Wildcats reached the Big Ten Conference Championship Game twice (2018, '20) and earned three bowl victories. In his first season, Northwestern posted a 10-3 record with a victory in the Music City Bowl, before helping the Wildcats win the Big Ten West in 2018, adding a win in the Holiday Bowl to close out his second season with the program.

Before his tenure at Northwestern, Koch spent one season at Benedictine (Ill.) University (2016), serving as Special Teams Coordinator, while also coaching the running backs and tight ends. Koch also oversaw Benedictine's recruiting efforts in the Chicagoland area.

Koch entered the coaching ranks in 2012 as a Graduate Assistant at Robert Morris University (Ill.), before returning to his alma mater, Minnesota State University Moorhead, in 2014, spending two seasons working with the defensive backs and special teams units.

A native of Elmhurst, Ill., Koch earned a bachelor's degree in exercise science from Minnesota State University Moorhead, before achieving a master's in management of sports administration from Robert Morris University (Ill.), then later gaining a second Master's degree from Northwestern University in 2019.

Cannon MATTHEWS

DEFENSIVE ASSISTANT / NICKELS

School: Ohio University
Hometown: Bedford Heights, Ohio

Cannon Matthews enters his second season as a Defensive Assistant – Nickels with the Bears in 2026.

In his first season with Chicago, Matthews aided a defense that led the NFL in takeaways (33) and interceptions (23). Matthews primarily led a nickels group that saw a number of contributors. After joining the Bears before Week 9 of the season, DB C.J. Gardner-Johnson made an immediate impact under Matthew's direction, becoming just the second DB to have three sacks in his first two games with a new team since sacks became an official stat in 1982. The three sacks ranked tied for the second most by and defensive back in the NFL during the 2025 season. DB Nick McCloud also spent time playing the nickel position, recording 26 tackles, his highest mark since 2022. After returning from injury late just in time for the postseason, DB Kyler Gordon made his impact felt in the Bears' two playoff games, logging 10 tackles, two passes defended, one QBH and a sack on Rams QB Matthew Stafford, for minus-13 yards.

Before arriving in Chicago, Matthews spent the previous five years on the staff of the Dallas Cowboys, starting as a Defensive Quality Control Coach in 2020, elevating to Assistant Defensive Backs Coach in 2023, then to Safeties Coach in 2024. Over the final four of his five years with Dallas, the Cowboys' secondary helped the unit total the most interceptions by any team in the NFL over the four-year span, amassing a league-high 72 interceptions from 2021-24. Matthews' work with the defensive backs helped the Cowboys own the No. 5 and No. 8-ranked pass defense in the NFL in 2023 (187.4) and 2022 (200.9), respectively. Individually, Matthews' group featured the development of CB Trevon Diggs, who accumulated two Pro Bowl selections and an AP First-Team All-Pro nod (2021) during his time with Matthews on staff, as well as the continued growth of All-Pro CB DaRon Bland, who, in 2023, set an NFL record for the most interceptions returned for a touchdown in a single season (five) while leading the league in interceptions. In 2021, Diggs secured an NFL-best 11 interceptions, tied for the most by any player in a single season in Cowboys history, en route to an All-Pro acknowledgment. As a rookie in 2020, Diggs led all Cowboys defenders in interceptions (three) and passes defensed (14).

Prior to his time with Dallas, Matthews spent three years as a Quality Control / Defense with Washington following one season as Assistant Defensive Backs Coach with the Cleveland Browns (2016). With Cleveland, the secondary registered 10 interceptions, as the 2016 season marked Matthews' third tenure with the Browns after previously serving as a Defensive Intern with Cleveland in 2013, where the unit ranked top-10 in the NFL in total defense (9th, 332.4 yards per game), and first as a Personnel Intern in 2007. Between coaching stints with Cleveland, Matthews spent two seasons as a Defensive Quality Control with the Tennessee Titans (2014-15), working with the linebackers. In his first season with Tennessee, 18 different Titans registered a full sack, a single-season team record and NFL best. The following season, the Titans defense ranked seventh in the NFL in passing defense (229.9 yards per game).

Matthews spent the 2012 season as Running Backs Coach at Kentucky Christian University, as the Knights posted a 7-4 record, registering the first winning season in program history. After accumulating experience as a Personnel Intern in 2007 with the Buffalo Bills and the first part of 2008 as a Personnel Intern with the Arizona Rattlers of the AFL, Matthews spent four years on the coaching staff of the Buffalo Bills. Matthews joined Buffalo's staff as a Defensive / Special Teams Assistant in 2008, spending two seasons in that role, before moving to the offensive side as an Offensive Assistant in 2010, where he aided the Bills' offensive coaching staff for two seasons.

A native of Bedford Heights, Ohio, Matthews earned a bachelor's degree in sports management from Ohio University.

Dan ROUSHAR

OFFENSIVE LINE

School: Northern Illinois University
Hometown: Clinton, Iowa

Dan Roushar is in his second season as Offensive Line Coach with the Bears in 2026.

Entering his 42nd season in the coaching profession, Roushar continues to lead the offensive line group for Chicago. Prior to joining the Bears, Roushar spent two seasons as the Offensive Line Coach at Tulane University, which followed a 10-year stint with the New Orleans Saints. Over his coaching tenure, Roushar has held the role of Offensive Coordinator on five separate occasions, and in his final two seasons with the Saints, oversaw the run game coordinator for New Orleans' offense. Over his five seasons leading the Saints' offensive line (2016-20), New Orleans claimed NFC South Division titles on four occasions.

In 2025, Roushar led an offensive line that produced two AP All-Pro players in OL Joe Thuney (First-Team) and OL Darnell Wright (Second-Team) and two Pro Bowl honorees, Thuney and OL Drew Dalman. Along with AP All-Pro and Pro Bowl honors, Thuney was named the inaugural winner of the NFL Protector of the Year Award, recognizing the NFL's best offensive lineman. The Bears offensive line helped the Bears become the only team in the NFL to have multiple rushers with at least 750 yards on the ground in 2025, finishing the regular season with the No. 3-ranked rushing offense in the NFL. The line protected QB Caleb Williams, who started all 17 games and set the franchise's single-season passing yard record, allowing just 24 sacks, the third fewest by any team in the league in 2025.

Prior to joining the Bears, Roushar spent two seasons leading the offensive line unit at Tulane University (2023-24), a two-year span that helped the Green Wave reach the AAC Championship Game each season, totaling 20 wins over the two-year stretch. In his first season at Tulane, the Green Wave reached 11 wins, marking the first occurrence of back-to-back double-digit win seasons in program history.

Prior to Tulane, Roushar spent 10 seasons with the Saints, which included a five-year tenure as Offensive Line Coach and a timeline that featured the responsibilities of Running Backs Coach, Tight Ends Coach and Run Game Coordinator. During his five seasons as Offensive Line Coach, the Saints owned one of the highest-ranking offensive units in the NFL, ranking No. 1 in the NFL in scrimmage yards per game (399.8) with the highest points per game average in the league (29.5).

Over his final two seasons with the Saints, Roushar oversaw the run game for the offense, while also guiding a tight end group that featured Juwan Johnson, who led New Orleans with a career-high seven receiving touchdowns in 2022. Roushar was impactful in Johnson's transition from wide receiver to tight end. In 2020, Roushar coached what continued to be one of the NFL's most stable offensive lines under his supervision. With the help of Roushar and the offensive coaching staff, the Saints rushed for a franchise-record and NFL-high 30 touchdowns, tied for the then-sixth-highest NFL total all-time, ranked sixth in rushing yards per game (141.6), ranking No. 4 in the league in scoring offense (29.7). Under Roushar's guidance, the offensive line blocked for RB Alvin Kamara, who led the NFL with a franchise-record 21 total touchdowns, while leading the team in both rushing and receiving with a career-high 1,688 total yards from scrimmage. Roushar's unit in 2019 surrendered just 25 sacks, third-fewest in the league, as quarterbacks Drew Brees and Teddy Bridgewater combined to throw for 36 touchdowns and only six interceptions.

Roushar led a 2018 unit that led the NFL with 26 rushing touchdowns. Despite being forced to use nine different starting offensive linemen due to injuries, the Saints allowed just 20 sacks under Roushar's guidance, second-best in the NFL. The offensive line allowed just 20 sacks in 2017, second-fewest in the NFL, even though it opened with six different lineups. Roushar's group played an instrumental role as the Saints were the only offense in the NFL to finish top-five in both rushing and passing, ranking No. 2 in total offense (391.2 yards per game). The 3,094 combined total yards from scrimmage from Mark Ingram and Kamara was second-most by an NFL running back duo since the start of a 16-game season (1978). The 4,339 combined total yards from scrimmage by Ingram, Kamara and WR Michael Thomas, was the highest total by a skill position trio in Saints history.

In Roushar's first season leading the offensive line (2016), the Saints were the No. 1 total offense (426.0 yards per game) and top-ranked passing offense (317.1 yards per game) in the NFL. New Orleans produced the second-most points per game average (29.3). Behind the blocking, Brees set a then-NFL single-season record in completions (471) and led the league in passing yardage (5,208), earning a Pro Bowl selection. The line also paved the way for Ingram to surpass the 1,000-yard mark for the first time.

Roushar started with the Saints as Running Backs Coach in 2013, holding that role for two seasons. In his first season with New Orleans, running backs Pierre Thomas (77) and Darren Sproles (71) became the first running back duo in franchise history to secure at least 70 receptions in the same season, as Thomas' output led all NFL players at their position, propelling the Saints to a No. 4 ranking in total offense in 2013 (399.4 yards per game). The following season, Roushar was instrumental in the rushing offense moving from 25th in the NFL to 13th, as Ingram was selected to the first Pro Bowl of his career behind 964 rushing yards and nine rushing scores. After tutoring the running backs from 2013-14, Roushar moved to Tight Ends Coach in 2015, as the Saints finished the season with the second-ranked offense in the NFL (403.8 yards per game). Under Roushar's guidance, TE Benjamin Watson set career-highs in both receptions (74) and receiving yardage (825) and tied a career-best in receiving touchdowns (six).

Before his decade with the Saints, Roushar spent six seasons at Michigan State University (2007-12), the final two as Offensive Coordinator / Tight Ends Coach. In his final season with the Spartans, Roushar coordinated an offense that featured RB Le'Veon Bell, who would claim the Big Ten Conference's rushing title with 1,793 yards on the ground, the second-most in program history, en route to earning All-America honors. In Roushar's first season as coordinator (2011), Michigan State averaged 31.0 points per game, which ranked third in the conference, and school records for most points (434) and passing yards (3,535), while finishing second in net yardage (5,466). Prior to his promotion to coordinator, Roushar served four seasons as the Spartans' offensive line coach. In four seasons coaching the Michigan State front, Roushar's linemen earned All-Big Ten recognition on eight occasions. Prior to his time in East Lansing, Roushar spent two years as the Offensive Line Coach at the University of Cincinnati (2005-06).

Following two seasons as quarterback at Northern Illinois University (1982-83), Roushar aided the Huskies as a student assistant in 1984, before a seven-year stretch at Butler University (1986-92), capped by a four-season tenure as Offensive Coordinator and Offensive Line Coach. Roushar would then hold roles at the University of Rhode Island (1993), Ball State University (1994) and the University of Illinois (1995-96, 2003-04). Between his two stints at Illinois, Roushar returned to his alma mater, Northern Illinois, where he spent six seasons, the final five of which were as Offensive Coordinator / Quarterbacks Coach.

A native of Clinton, Iowa, Roushar and his wife, Patti, have four children – daughters Marrisa, Mallory and Maura, and son, Danny.

Richard SMITH

LINEBACKERS

School: Fresno State University
Hometown: Los Angeles, Calif.

Richard Smith is in his second year as the Bears Linebackers Coach in 2026.

Smith has over 45 years of coaching experience, with almost 40 of those years coming in the NFL. In his 39 NFL seasons, he has coached in 30 playoff games, including two during the Bears 2025 postseason run.

In his first season with the Bears, Smith led a linebacker room that featured LB Tremaine Edmunds who led the team with 112 tackles, becoming the fifth player to have 100+ tackles in each of his first eight NFL seasons since the stat began being tracked in 1987. Edmunds also contributed a career-high tying four interceptions, the third most by a linebacker in the NFL in 2025 and tied for the eight-most among all players. The linebacker room also featured veteran LB T.J. Edwards, and Week 14 NFC Defensive Player of the Week, LB D'Marco Jackson, both of whom each had an interception in the regular season, contributing to the Bears league-leading tally of 23 interceptions. Koch also has aided in the development of LB Noah Sewell over the past two seasons. In 2025, Sewell logged a forced fumble, adding to the Bears league-leading 33 total takeaways.

Before coming to Chicago, Smith led the linebackers group for the Indianapolis Colts from 2022-24, adding Run Game Coordinator responsibilities for the 2023 and 2024 seasons. In Indianapolis, Smith led the development of LB Zaire Franklin. In his first year under Smith's direction, the fifth-year linebacker broke the Colts single-season tackling record, recording 166 takedowns (102 solo), far surpassing his old career high of 29 stops. Franklin then exceeded that total for each of the next two seasons, resetting the franchise record to 179 tackles (107 solo) in 2023 and recording 173 tackles (93 solo) in 2024 earning him his first Pro Bowl Games selection. LB E.J. Speed also saw significant growth under Smith's direction, setting a new career high in tackles all three seasons under Smith; 55 (23 solo) in 2022, 100 (76 solo) in 2023 and 142 (93 solo) in 2024. The linebacking duo of Franklin and Speed are one of just four pairs of teammates to total at least 100 tackles in each of the past two seasons (CHI: Edmunds/Edwards, CIN: Pratt/Wilson, JAX: Lloyd/Oluokun)

Smith led the Raiders linebackers' group in 2021, where he guided veteran LB Denzel Perryman to a career-high 154 tackles (102 solo), the sixth-most in the NFL, earning his first Pro Bowl selection. Prior to his time with Las Vegas, Smith served as the linebackers coach for the Los Angeles Chargers for four seasons (2017-2020). During his time in Los Angeles, the Chargers secured a playoff spot in 2018 for the first time since 2013 and just the second time since 2010. In 2020, Smith guided rookie LB Kenneth Murray Jr. as he paced the team in tackles with 107, setting a franchise record for most tackles by a rookie and finishing second among rookies in his class. Smith was reunited with LB Thomas Davis Sr. in 2019, who he coached with the Carolina Panthers for two seasons. Under Smith's tutelage, Davis led the team with 112 tackles, while fourth-round rookie LB Drue Tranquill finished second on the squad with 75 tackles. Smith's group was instrumental to the defense's improvement against the run in 2018, as opponents averaged nearly 30 fewer rushing yards per game than the season before.

Smith spent two seasons as the defensive coordinator with the Atlanta Falcons (2015-16). Smith's unit helped the Falcons claim the 2016 NFC Championship to earn a spot in Super Bowl LI. Under Smith's guidance, DE Vic Beasley recorded a league-leading 15.5 sacks in 2016. In 2015, Smith helped Atlanta's defense see a major improvement, going from 32nd to 16th in total defense.

From 2011-14, Smith coached on four straight playoff teams as the Linebackers Ccoach in his second stint with the Denver Broncos, including a 2013 squad that won the AFC Championship and earned a berth in Super Bowl XLVIII. During his four seasons with Denver, the Broncos ranked third in the league in rushing defense, fourth in third-down defense and seventh in total defense over that span. Smith helped develop LB Von Miller, who has become one of the NFL's most dominant defenders. Miller earned three Pro Bowl selections during his time with Smith, earned was named the 2011 AP Defensive Rookie of the Year and was named first-team All-Pro in 2012.

Prior to joining the Broncos, Smith served as the Linebackers Coach with the Panthers for two seasons (2009-10). During his time in Carolina, the Panthers collected the third-most takeaways in the NFL. Smith also helped LB Jon Beason earn a Pro Bowl selection in 2009.

Smith had a three-year stint as the Defensive Coordinator for the Houston Texans (2006-08). During his time with the Texans, Smith's defense produced two Pro Bowlers and two second-team All-Pro performers in OLB DeMeco Ryans and DE Mario Williams. In 2005, Smith landed his first post as a Defensive Coordinator with the Miami Dolphins. That year, Miami finished the season ranked second in the NFL with 49 sacks.

Smith spent two seasons (2003-04) as the Assistant Head Coach and Linebackers Coach in Detroit after serving after coaching the linebackers in San Francisco from 1997-2002. During his six seasons with San Francisco, four 49ers linebackers earned Pro Bowl honors – Ken Norton Jr., Lee Woodall, Winfred Tubbs and Julian Peterson.

From 1993-96, Smith coached special teams in his first stint with the Broncos, spending the first two years (1993-94) with the added duty of Assistant Linebackers Coach. Smith entered the NFL coaching ranks with the Houston Oilers from 1988-1992, handling special teams, while also assisting with the tight ends, linebackers and offensive line. During his time with the Oilers, Smith worked closely with Pro Football Hall of Fame OL Bruce Matthews and OL Mike Munchak.

Prior to entering the league, Smith spent nine years coaching at the collegiate level. Smith began his coaching career at his alma mater, Rio Hondo Junior College (Calif), coaching the offensive line for two seasons (1979-80). Smith also held coaching roles at Cal State-Fullerton (1981-83), Cal (1984-86) and Arizona (1987).

Smith played offensive line at Rio Hondo Junior College from 1975-76 before transferring to Fresno State in 1977 where he helped Fresno State capture the Pacific Coast Athletic Association title.

Ryan POLES
GENERAL MANAGER

School: Boston College
Hometown: Canandaigua, N.Y.

Ryan Poles enters his fifth season with the Bears in 2026 after being named the club's seventh general manager in franchise history on Jan. 25, 2022.

Upon his hire, Poles embarked on an in-depth, comprehensive process to restructure the club's roster and develop all areas surrounding organizational culture and the football operation of the Chicago Bears. Poles was instrumental in striking a deal with the Carolina Panthers in advance of the 2023 NFL Draft, leading to a flurry of enhancements to the Bears' roster over the next three seasons. Among other assets, the return included Carolina's first-round pick in the 2024 NFL Draft, which the Bears utilized to select quarterback Caleb Williams. Working with Head Coach Ben Johnson, Poles and his staff have continued to develop the roster to build on an NFC North Division Title and playoff victory during the 2025 season.

Ahead of the 2025 season, the Bears added four-time AP All-Pro guard Joe Thuney and Pro Bowl guard Jonah Jackson via trade. Thuney, along with right tackle Darnell Wright, whom the Bears selected in the 2023 Draft, were named to the AP All-Pro team, while center Drew Dalman earned Pro Bowl selection. As a whole the offensive allowed the third-fewest sacks in the NFL, propelling Williams to a sophomore season where he broke the Bears single season passing record (3,942) and set an NFL record for fewest interceptions through a passers first 1,000 career attempts (13). Offensively the Bears finished the regular season with the fewest giveaways in the NFL (11), and the second-most points scored off of takeaways in the league (104). The Bears registered the NFL's No. 3-ranked rushing offense in 2025 (144.5 rushing yards per game) and culminated the regular season with 441 points scored, third-most in a single season in franchise history. Defensively, the Bears culminated the regular season with an NFL-best 33 takeaways, including 23 INTs, for a league-leading +22 turnover differential. Chicago's +22 turnover differential registered as the third-best in a single season by the Bears since at least 1960. The Bears captured an NFC North title and completed an 18-point comeback in the NFC Wild Card Round to defeat the division rival Green Bay Packers.

During the 2024 season, rookie quarterback Williams set franchise rookie records across all major statistical passing categories. Williams' season included a string of 353 consecutive pass attempts without an interception, good for not only an NFL rookie record, but the fourth-longest single-season streak in NFL history. Fellow first-round rookie, Odunze, finished the season with the fourth-most receptions (61) and receiving yards (734) by a rookie in franchise history. While punter Tory Taylor, another member of the Bears 2024 draft class, set single-season franchise records in both gross (47.7) and net (41.6) punting average. On the defensive side of the ball, the Bears allowed touchdowns on just 46 percent of opponents redzone drives, the second-best rate in the NFL, while finishing top 10 in the NFL with 24 takeaways.

Poles comprised a roster in 2023 that helped lead Chicago with the league's top-ranked rush defense (86.4 yards per game) and finish the season with the No. 2 rushing offense in the NFL (141.1 yards per game). Defensively, the Bears ranked second in the league in fewest rushing touchdowns allowed (eight), putting forth a five-game span (Weeks 7-12) that the unit did not allow a single rushing touchdown. Conversely, Chicago's offense totaled the second-most first downs in the league (86). The Bears' four-win improvement from the 2022 season marked the largest year-over-year win improvement in over half a decade.

Poles and his staff oversaw a transition as the club went from one of the oldest rosters in the NFL at the end of the 2021 season, to one of the youngest teams in the league. Holding the No. 1 pick entering the 2023 Draft, Poles struck a deal with the Carolina Panthers on March 15, which brought in wide receiver DJ Moore in addition to the No. 9-overall selection and the 61st-overall pick in 2023, as well as a 2024 first-round selection and a 2025 second-round pick. The roster additions continued in free agency as Poles and his staff acquired veteran contributors along the defensive front and among the linebacker corps to support the eventual top-ranked defense. The Bears completed their most notable in-season move ahead of the trade deadline in Week 9, acquiring defensive lineman Montez Sweat from the Washington Commanders via trade in exchange for a 2024 second-round pick.

With one of the youngest on-field rosters in 2022, the Bears posted a league-high 6,721 snaps from first-year players. Offensively, the club finished the 2022 season by setting a team rushing record with a league-best 3,019 rushing yards. Defensively, with the youngest on-field defense in the NFL, the club finished the season ranked among the top-10 in several categories: completions allowed (323, 6th), interception percentage (2.9 pct, 8th), interception yards (201, 9th) and fourth down conversions (six, 1st) to name a few. Chicago opened the 2022 season with several new pieces on the roster following a mix of trades, free agent signings and waiver claims. The Bears Week 1 roster featured 11 rookie debuts, the most by any team in the NFL int the 2022 season. The club's 2023 draft class also featured a large group with 10 total selections. The 2022-23 Bears draft classes were the first time since the start of the modern seven-round draft era that the Bears had consecutive classes with 10+ picks.

Prior to his arrival in Chicago, Poles spent 13 years within the front office of the Kansas City Chiefs, helping Kansas City comprise rosters that led to two Super Bowl appearances and a World Championship with a victory over the San Francisco 49ers in Super Bowl LIV. In his 13th and final season with the Chiefs in 2021, Poles was named the club's Executive Director of Player Personnel. Initially joining the Chiefs in 2009 as a Player Personnel Assistant, Poles demonstrated his development and ascension through the ranks with Kansas City through holding the roles of College Scouting Administrator (2010-12), College Scouting Coordinator (2013-16), Director of College Scouting (2017), Assistant Director of Player Personnel (2018-20), ultimately leading to serving as the Executive Director of Player Personnel in 2021, helping the Chiefs win their second-straight AFC Championship.

During his 13 years in Kansas City, the Chiefs captured seven AFC West division championships, as Poles oversaw all aspects of the college scouting across the country for the Chiefs while assisting with the pro personnel process and preparing for free agency. He also assisted General Manager Brett Veach with the coordination of the NFL Draft and overseeing the team's out-of-town area scouts. Poles was instrumental in helping the Chiefs land top draft prospects such as quarterback Patrick Mahomes and tight end Travis Kelce, who have gone on to receive multiple All-Pro recognitions. In 2021, the Chiefs tied for second in the NFL with six Pro Bowl selections in Mahomes, Kelce, wide receiver Tyreek Hill, offensive tackle Orlando Brown, defensive tackle Chris Jones and safety Tyrann Mathieu and tied for first in the NFL with seven selections in 2020. In total, from 2009-21, the Chiefs had 69 Pro Bowl selections with 28 different players.

Prior to joining the Chiefs, Poles served as a Recruiting Assistant at his alma mater, Boston College (2008-09). Upon culmination of his collegiate career, Poles signed with the Chicago Bears as an undrafted free agent in 2008.

The Canandaigua, N.Y., native played offensive tackle for five seasons for Boston College (2003-07), protecting former NFL quarterback Matt Ryan and playing alongside Bears Co-Director of Player Personnel Trey Koziol. Poles was honored with the Paul Cavanaugh Award in 2007 as the student-athlete with total commitment to football both on and off the field and for his dedication to volunteerism, ethics and community. He played his prep football at Canandaigua Academy in Canandaigua, N.Y.

Poles also was named to several "40 Under 40" lists: Ingram's Magazine in 2019, The Athletic in 2021 and the Chicago Magazine in 2024 & 2025. He graduated from Boston College in 2007 with a degree in communications. He and his wife, Katie, have two children: Mason and Jordyn.

history

1920S

9/17/20 – George Halas, representing the Decatur Staleys, meets with representatives of 11 other clubs at Ralph Hay's Hupmobile showroom in Canton, Ohio, forming the American Professional Football Association – which later became the NFL. Membership is set at $100.

1920 – The Staleys shut out 10 of 13 foes, losing only to the Chicago Cardinals (7-6 at Normal Park), and post a 10-1-2 record. Each player is paid $1,900 for the season.

1921 – A. E. Staley gives Halas the club with $5,000 to keep the Staleys name for the year. Decatur Staleys become Chicago Staleys, play in Cubs Park (re-named Wrigley Field in 1926), and win the APFA title with 9-1-1 record. Halas makes Dutch Sternaman his partner.

1/28/22 – Franchise renamed Chicago Bears.

11/27/22 – First Chicago player deal: Bears buy tackle Ed Healey's contract from the Rock Island Independents for $100–twice the going rate for a franchise that season.

11/22/25 – Harold "Red" Grange signs with Bears and pro football leaves its cradle. His agent, C.C. (Cash & Carry) Pyle, negotiates a $100,000 deal with the Bears. Halas takes the Bears and Grange on a coast-to-coast tour that sees the club play 19 games from Nov. 26 through Jan. 31 interrupted only by a two-week rest. The Bears post a 13-5-1 record on the trip.

11/26/25 – Grange's first game–36,000 see Bears and Cardinals tie 0-0 in Cubs Park. Grange held to 36 yards.

1/16/26 – Grange scores two TDs as the Bears impress a crowd of 70,000 in the LA Coliseum, beating the LA Tigers 17-7.

3/1/26 – Bears open offices at 111 W. Washington in Chicago.

1930S

1930 – After a 4-9-2 season in 1929, George Halas replaces himself as head coach with Ralph Jones. Jones posts a 24-10-7 record during his three seasons.

11/15/31 – New Yorkers (including Gov. Alfred E. Smith and Mayor Jimmy Walker) in field boxes at $100 a seat watch Bears top Giants at Polo Grounds 12-6.

1932 – Franchise loses $18,000, prompting Dutch Sternaman to sell his half of the Bears to George Halas.

12/18/32 – Bronko Nagurski hits Red Grange with a two-yard TD pass and the Bears top the Portsmouth Spartans 9-0 for the NFL championship. The game was played before 11,198, indoors at Chicago Stadium on an 80-yard field.

BEAR DOWN, CHICAGO BEARS

The Chicago Bears team fight song, "Bear Down, Chicago Bears," was introduced in 1941 by composer Al Hoffman under the pseudonym Jerry Downs. In a long-lasting and varied musical career, Hoffman earned immortality for writing words and music to "If I Knew You Were Coming I'd Have Baked a Cake" and "Mairzy Doats" among others.

Hoffman had little apparent connection to Chicago. He was born in Minsk, Russia in 1902. He grew up in Seattle after emigrating there with his family in 1908 and he moved to New York in the 1920s before starting a career as a music composer. Besides the aforementioned songs, he also wrote songs for Disney's original "Cinderella" cartoon, including "Bibbidi-Bobbidi-Boo," "A Dream Is A Wish Your Heart Makes," "The Work Song" and "So This Is Love."

The lyrics to "Bear Down, Chicago Bears":

Bear down, Chicago Bears, make every play clear the way to victory;
Bear down, Chicago Bears, put up a fight with a might so fearlessly.
We'll never forget the way you thrilled the nation, with your T-formation.
Bear down, Chicago Bears, and let them know why you're wearing the crown.
You're the pride and joy of Illinois, Chicago Bears, bear down.

PRESERVING HISTORY

The historic colonnades and historic South Wall remained untouched as the new stadium was built within the existing exterior of Soldier Field. The Memorial Water Wall honors all soldiers who have served in the United States Armed Forces. The Wall serves as an educational piece for families and visitors of the museum campus. A Doughboy statue was erected at the entrance of Gate 0 and the south concourse features a Medal of Honor tribute.

Following 31 seasons of football along the shores of Lake Michigan (pictured, left), the Bears took a brief one-year hiatus from Soldier Field in 2002, playing home games at Memorial Stadium in Champaign so construction of the new Soldier Field (right) could be completed. The first game in the new stadium was Sept. 29, 2003 against division rival Green Bay. The Bears first season at the old venue was in 1971 after spending 50 seasons at Wrigley Field. Soldier Field was opened in 1924 as a 45,000-seat Municipal Grant Park Stadium. The first football game played on its field was November 22, 1924, as a capacity crowd watched Notre Dame edge Northwestern, 13-6.

It hosted the first boxing event which drew a gate of over $2.5 million (Dempsey-Tunney, 1927) and the first ski meet held in a stadium. The largest crowd for any event in Soldier Field was 260,000 on Sept. 8, 1954, for the Catholic Church's Marian Year Tribute.

The 100,000-seat stadium was dedicated November 27, 1926, with Army battling Navy to a 21-21 tie. The all-time collegiate attendance record of 123,000-plus was established Nov. 26, 1927 as Notre Dame beat Southern California 7-6. In the first professional game at the then-mammoth stadium, the Bears defeated the Chicago Cardinals 10-0 on November 11, 1926.

Plans for the stadium started in 1919 as a memorial to the soldiers of WWI. Soldier Field stood on a 10,000 pile foundations driving an average depth of 62.5 feet through fill that replaced the lake waters. The new stadium continues to be owned, maintained and operated by the Chicago Park District.

On Sept. 3, 2019 - two days before the Bears kicked off their 100th season - two of the franchise's most legendary Hall of Famers and icons were honored outside Soldier Field when statues of George S. Halas and Walter Payton were unveiled during a private ceremony outside Gate 0 at the south end of the stadium. Created by sculptor Chad Fisher, the statues are 12-feet tall and wieght 3,000 pounds

Located on the west side of the stadium on the street-level main concourse, the bas-relief sculpture marks the gateway for a stadium visitor's trip through the history of the Chicago Bears.

Pure and simple, he loved this game that was as uncluttered and uncompromising as he was. Its requirements were courage, endurance, self-discipline and a competitive spirit. These were his prerequisites, too.

His teams played the game the same way he did - tough, aggressive and smart.

Often graced by a running back of exceptional ability, the Bears were always marked by a punishing defense that never stopped coming at you.

George Halas was a founder of the NFL and a pioneer of the Chicago Bears. His devotion to both over the decades helped them grow to prominence.

We will always remember his energy, his joy in competing, and his passion for his beloved Bears and Bear fans.

-bas-relief inscription

The bas-relief is a time-line describing George Halas' contribution to the world of football and the history of the Chicago Bears.

Hall of Famers date back from the 1920s when George Halas founded the Chicago Bears, and represent different decades of team history.

The tremendous energy and influence of the two large George Halas reliefs tell the story and balance all of the action. George S. Halas is without doubt the overriding presence in the sculpture.

The laser-etched imagery shows the team in the 1920's - also Halas and his team celebrating a 1940's win against the Redskins, fan images from Wrigley Field, a photo of Halas with George Jr. and Paddy Driscoll, and a fan grouping from the 1980's. Integrated in the composition is the famous "T" formation that Halas invented.

THE BEARS DEN

Located on the lower concourse of the west grandstands, the Bears Den offers a dramatic, visual walk through Chicago Bears history.

THE DOUGHBOY STATUE

Just inside Gate O in the Grand Concourse stands the restored Doughboy Statue. Originally installed in Chicago's Garfield Park in the early 1930s, four decades later it was damaged, debased, but not forgotten. Chicago sculpture conservator Andrzej Dajnowski meticulously recast the missing parts and refurbished the entire statue and base to its original condition and it joins the other memorials to the American fighting men and women at Soldier Field.

THE MEMORIAL WATER WALL

The Memorial Water Wall, a 250-foot long wall of polished green granite with eight medallions honoring the different branches of the armed services, flanks the walkway that leads into the north entrance of the stadium. A veil of water continuously flows over the sculptured memorial.

The Chicago Bears moved into Halas Hall at Conway Park on March 3, 1997. The 38-acre complex is located in Lake Forest off of Route 60 just east of the Tri-State Tollway, approximately four miles from the former Halas Hall. The building is dedicated to Bears' founder, president and coach George Halas. The original Halas Hall, on the Lake Forest College campus, was dedicated by coach Halas in the name of his son, Mugs, in 1979.

The complex has undergone two major renovations since its original construction. The first coming after the 2012 season to expand and upgrade the Bears headquarters to enhance the football and business operations while providing new opportunities and experiences for fans.

The upgrade increased the 100,000-square facility with an additional 43,500-square feet of working space to accompany 2 1/2 outdoor practice fields equipped with 14 miles of underground heating tubes, enabling the grass to remain soft and growing into early winter, as well as five miles of drain tubing that can capture and disperse nine inches of rainfall per hour and 2.5 miles of cooling pipes for the grass roots.

The construction of 2013 expanded the weight room from 7,000 to 8,500-square feet and featured new lighting. The locker room was upgraded with additional and reconfigured lockers and new carpeting. Existing and newly created meeting rooms featured enhanced technology.

A state-of-the-art event center including a 4,000-square foot broadcast studio and conference center capable of hosting 200 people for both events and original programming. The two-level entryway to the event center was added featuring interactive digital displays, video monitors and memorabilia, including some never-before-featured pieces of Bears history such as the 1963 NFL championship trophy. A new press conference room and a relocated media courtyard were also added along with increased workspace for media members.

WALTER PAYTON CENTER

The team's indoor practice facility, the Walter Payton Center, was renovated during the summer of 2005. The Walter Payton Center is a rigid structure, opposed to the inflated "bubble" the team used from 1990-96, and includes a full 100-yard field. The structure is 85 feet high, 200 feet wide and 400 feet long. The renovation included removal of the existing fabric roof and cladding on the outside of the building, replacement of the end walls and installation of a new, state-of-the-art synthetic turf and two-lane running track. A new heating and de-humidification system was also installed. The Bears renamed the indoor facility during a ceremony on Thursday, April 6, 2000.

Walter Payton Center

The previous Halas Hall on the campus of Lake Forest College had 32,000 square feet of space, while the new building was over 143,500. The entire former Halas Hall would fit into the basement of the current building. Furthermore, the old locker room was 1,400 square feet, while the new one sized up to about 3,000, features new lighting for the 75 lockers and four natural light wells. The weight room was expanded to almost five times the size of the 1,800-square foot workout area at the old building. The weight room features a 28-feet-high glass wall overlooking the practice fields, providing ample natural light. A two-lane lap pool sits behind the weight room and its sixty-foot lanes have built-in resistance currents. The training room expanded to over five times the size of its predecessor and boasts a doctor's office, x-ray facility, medical records storeroom, casting room, whirlpool, cold-dip plunge, steam room and sauna. The football needs are met with large classrooms, two large meeting rooms/classrooms and a 150-seat auditorium.

The Bears also added a practice viewing suite on the second level of Halas Hall. The 40-person suite overlooks the team's practice fields and features many of the amenities of game suites at Soldier Field. A new kitchen and dining facility, including an outdoor patio was also added. The dining room was expanded to accommodate up to 100 people. Additional conference room and staff offices were also added throughout Halas Hall.

The Bears headquarters also added a new entry into the main lobby and 105 additional parking spaces. The architectural style is consistent with that of the original building. A main focal point is the entry point to the main lobby, featuring the classic Bears "C" on an impressive portico.

ED McCASKEY MEMORIAL GARDEN AND KATIE'S GARDEN

Completed in June, 2005, the Ed McCaskey Memorial Garden is located south of Halas Hall. The garden is a beautifully landscaped, clover-leaf-shaped garden bordered by a 30" stone seat wall and piers. A winding gravel road from Halas Hall leads to the opening of the garden where a variety of trees, shrubs and perennials are planted.

Katie's Garden is located outside of Halas Hall's main entrance. Described as "The nicest person on the planet" by Bears Chairman George H. McCaskey, Katie Nagle was a longtime executive assistant with the Bears before passing away in September of 2024. The Garden was dedicated in April of 2025 to the memory of Katie's loyalty, kindness and gratitude.

In November 2017 the Bears announced a second major renovation to Halas Hall, partnering with global design and architecture firm HOK to design a 162,500-square-foot football operations addition to the already-existing 143,000-square-foot Halas Hall and a 30,600-square-foot remodeling project on the northeast side of the building.

Former Bears president and CEO Ted Phillips detailed what he described as "a significant expansion of Halas Hall".

"We're effectively going to double in size," Phillips said. "The ultimate facility will be on a par with the best in the NFL. This is being done to make our football operations, coaching and player personnel areas the best in the league."

The magnitude of the project will completely transform the look and feel of all existing team space and provide even greater resources for the team's training and performance needs. The initial phase of the expansion project will focus on enhancement of the team's football operations, including player training, education, performance, nutrition and rehabilitation. The project broke ground in March 2018 and was completed in summer of 2019.

While football operations, players and coaches area were most affected by the renovation, former Bears general manager Ryan Pace told employees that they, too, will benefit.

"It affects all of us because it equates to winning," Pace said. "This project is not about flash. It's about what it tangibly does to help us win games. So you'll see the way we train, the way we rehab, the way we recover, the way we educate our players, those are all areas that we're going to drastically improve in.

"We've seen the top facilities across the United States in pro and college football. This is going to put us right at the top among the elite. I'm proud of this. It shows a major commitment to winning from our ownership and leadership, and everyone in football operations recognizes this."

The addition features a 13,000-square-foot indoor turf space for training and walkthroughs with a 133'x26' video projection wall and adjacent virtual reality room, in addition to a 2,000-square-foot weight room expansion. Also included is an equipment room, recovery space and nutrition/fuel station that doubled the previous size while the sports medicine space grew four times larger than the previous area and features a hydrotherapy pool.

Position meeting rooms and the draft room both doubled in capacity, while coaches' offices increased by 50 percent and allow for improved collaboration. A 3,250-square-foot players' lounge and separate huddle space was created, along with an approximately 1,700-square-foot player locker room and a larger coaches/scouts locker room.

The team and staff café was expanded by 4,300 square feet to support the organization's growth, as well as providing new food offerings. Basement storage space was also be increased through the expansion.

Additionally, two additional football fields were added on the east side of the Walter Payton Center, which allows the team to spread out the field use over four fields throughout the offseason and during in-season practices. That project also added an addition of a training slope, a storage facility and a small practice viewing suite, similar to the viewing suite used at Halas Hall for corporate partners and other VIP guests.

HISTORY OF THE BEARS UNIFORM

The Chicago Bears, originally called the Decatur Staleys when founded in 1920, the team initially wore red jerseys with tan colored vertical striping. The vertical stripes were actually strips of leather sewn onto the uniform to help the ball carrier secure the ball.

In 1935 the Bears introduced an orange jersey with black arm stripes and black helmet and by 1958 were wearing the familiar navy blue with burnt orange. The Bears unique "rounded" number style on the uniforms and numbers on the sides of the sleeves of the jerseys dates back to 1949. The Bears trademark 'C' logo appeared on helmets in 1962 and its use continues through present day although the mark has changed from white to orange and the shape has changed slightly. After 11 years, the white 'C' logo is colored orange with white trim in 1973 and still has the same look today. The initials GSH were added to the left sleeve in 1984 in honor of the late 'Papa Bear' George S. Halas, who passed away Oct. 31, 1983. The uniform has had a very consistent look from the 1970's with the exception of blue pants with white jersey introduced in 1984 as a road uniform. On Oct. 7, 2002 on a Monday Night Football game against Green Bay, the Bears wore their traditional home blue jerseys with the blue pants for the first time. On Nov. 25, 2004, for a Thanksgiving game at Dallas, the Bears wore a throwback orange jersey; then, on Nov. 13, 2005, introduced a new-look orange third jersey which the Bears wore from 2005-09 and 2011. The 2018 season saw a return of the orange jerseys for two games and again for two games during the 2019 season.

In 2010 the team unveiled its throwback uniform which is modeled after the 1940s Bears uniforms. The "Monsters of the Midway" of the '40s won four league titles in seven seasons and were led by eight Hall of Famers (Head Coach George Halas and players Danny Fortmann, Sid Luckman, George McAfee, George Musso, Bronko Nagurski, Joe Stydahar and Clyde "Bulldog" Turner). Then in 2019, the Bears unveiled a new classic uniform (pictured, right), a recreation of the one the team wore for one season in 1936. It features white jerseys, navy and orange stripes on the shoulders and sleeves, navy numbers and letters, navy pants and navy and orange striped socks.

GEORGE S. HALAS

FEBRUARY 2, 1895 – OCTOBER 31, 1983

Leading the Chicago Bears for more than a half-century, George S. Halas, the team's founder and head coach for 40 years, was one of the most enduring personalities in sports history. Halas was active with the Bears starting in 1920 when he founded the team as the Decatur Staleys.

Halas was born and raised on Chicago's west side and prepped at Crane Tech High School before attending the University of Illinois. In Champaign, he earned a B.S. degree in civil engineering while lettering in football, basketball and baseball. After graduation in 1918, Halas joined the Navy for the first of two tours of duty. He was named Player of the Game in the 1919 Rose Bowl, playing end on the Great Lakes team that beat the Marines 17-0. A commander when he left active duty in 1946, Halas retired as a captain in the Naval Reserve. He was also awarded the Distinguished Citizens Award – the highest honor the Navy can bestow on a civilian.

After leaving the Navy, Halas played right field for the New York Yankees, but a hip injury shortened his baseball career. Halas went to work for a Decatur (Ill.) corn products firm owned by an enthusiastic sports fan, Mr. A.E. Staley, who sponsored a semi-pro baseball team, and later commissioned Halas to organize an independent football team.

PLAYING CAREER: As a player, Halas set an NFL record (which stood 49 years, until 1972) when he took a Jim Thorpe fumble 98 yards for a TD in a 26-0 win over the Oorang Indians at Cubs Park (11/4/23) (re-named Wrigley Field in 1926). He played end for the Bears from 1920-29 and was named to the NFL all-pro squad of the 1920s.

GEORGE HALAS STATUE

The Bears unveiled a statue of George Halas on Sunday, Aug. 23, 2015, at a private ceremony outside Halas Hall, the team's training facility that's named after the legendary Hall of Famer.

The statue was created by sculptor Chad Fisher out of white bronze. It weighs 1,600 pounds, stands 8'8" on a granite base and features Halas with his right arm extended pointing his index finger.

A Chicago native who starred at the University of Illinois, Halas was a pro football pioneer. He helped create what would become the NFL when he joined representatives from 11 other teams in Canton, Ohio, in 1920 to found the American Professional Football Association.

Halas moved the Decatur Staleys to Chicago in 1921 and they were renamed the Chicago Bears in 1922. "Papa Bear" was named to the NFL's 1920s All-Decade Team as a player and later became the winningest coach in NFL history with 324 victories, a record since surpassed by Don Shula and Bill Belichick.

Serving as Bears coach for four separate 10-year stints, Halas led the franchise to six NFL championships in 1921, 1933, 1940, 1941, 1946 and 1963. He is a charter member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame, having been enshrined in 1963.

COACHING CAREER: Three times Halas interrupted his coaching activities by his own volition. He first turned over the leadership to Ralph Jones from 1930 through 1932. In 1942 when he left for the Navy, Luke Johnsos and Heartley "Hunk" Anderson shared head coaching responsibilities through '45. John "Paddy" Driscoll coached in 1956-57.

Coincidentally, in '33 and again in '46 when Halas resumed coaching, his Bears won world championships. During the 1940s, his teams reached the height of their power with four straight Western Conference titles; three world championships; a fantastic four-season record (including pre-season games) of 62-7-1 (.899); scored 2,164 points and allowed just 842. The 1940 team, which defeated Washington 73-0 for the world championship, was voted the greatest professional team of all-time by the National Academy of Sports Editors in 1963.

Resuming coaching in 1958, Halas needed five years to develop another champion, when in 1963 the Bears won their eighth championship. The Sporting News, AP and UPI named him Coach of the Year after the 1963 and 1965 seasons. Halas retired from coaching on May 27, 1968, with a career record of 324-151-31. His win total was the best in NFL history until Don Shula broke the mark in 1993. Halas is a charter member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

NAMING THE BEARS

George Halas originally named the team the Decatur Staleys after A.E. Staley, a starch manufacturer and enthusiastic sports fan who sponsored a semi-pro team and commissioned Halas to organize the new squad.

One year later, trying to match the profitability of Chicago's baseball franchises, Staley asked Halas if he would take the team off Staley's hands and move it to Chicago for $5,000, while keeping the name Staleys for another year. With the help of legendary baseball pioneers Bill Veeck Sr. and William Wrigley, Halas soon acquired a lease to play at Wrigley Field then known as Cubs Park.

When Halas' obligation to Staley terminated in 1922, he considered re-naming the team the Chicago Cubs out of respect for Veeck and Wrigley who, according to Halas in his biography, "had been such a great help."

But, as Halas continued, "I noted football players are much bigger players than baseball players, so if baseball players are cubs, then football players must be bears!"

On January 28, 1922, the franchise was renamed the Chicago Bears.

In 1920 the team wore red, the color of the A.E. Staley company. The next year the team switched to navy blue and orange after those of Halas' alma mater, the University of Illinois. Halas lettered in football, basketball and baseball for the Fighting Illini, and is honored as one of U of I's most distinguished alumni in the Illini Union in Urbana-Champaign.

GEORGE S. HALAS, JR.

SEPTEMBER 4, 1925 – DECEMBER 16, 1979

George S. "Mugs" Halas was an integral part of the Bears before his untimely death in 1979. The son of pro football founder George S. Halas, Mugs spent 30 years in pro football. He joined the Bears' front office in 1950, was named treasurer in 1953, and became president of the club in 1963. He was also the first general manager in team history, serving in that capacity from 1963-74. In his first season as president, the Bears were NFL champions. Mugs was the second of just five presidents in the franchise history. He succeeded his father, George S. Halas, and was followed by Michael McCaskey, Ted Phillips and current team president Kevin Warren. His numerous contributions on a league level included membership on the executive committee of the NFL Management Council.

Mugs learned football at a young age, serving as a ballboy while growing up. He earned a business degree from Loyola in 1949, before entering pro football on a full-time basis. Mugs is remembered for his love and devotion to the game.

EDWARD W. MCCASKEY

APRIL 27, 1919 – APRIL 8, 2003

Edward (Ed) W. McCaskey served as an executive with the Bears for 36 years, serving as Chairman Emeritus of the club from 1999 until his death in 2003. He was the team's second Chairman of the Board, succeeding team founder George Halas in 1983 following 17 years as the team's Vice President and Treasurer. McCaskey married Halas' only daughter, Virginia, in 1943 and joined the team at Halas' request in 1967.

McCaskey was a popular figure within the NFL and was referred to by many as the conscience of the League, as well as a sounding board for many of its leaders. He contributed to numerous charitable and civic organziations on behalf of the Bears and served as the guiding force behind the Brian Piccolo Fund.

MICHAEL B. MCCASKEY

DECEMBER 11, 1943 – MAY 16, 2020

Michael B. McCaskey joined the family business in 1983, when he succeeded his grandfather, George S. Halas, as President & CEO and held that position until 1999 when he became the team's chairman. Under McCaskey's leadership, the Bears had eight playoff seasons, claimed six NFC Central division titles and were crowned Super Bowl XX Champions. Following the 1985 Super Bowl championship, his peers voted him NFL Executive of the Year. Michael also served as Chairman of the Board of the Bears from 1999-2011. In the spring of 1997, under Michael's guidance, the Bears moved from the original Halas Hall on the campus of Lake Forest College to a new state-of-the-art home and where the team still resides today.

Michael also was a co-founder of the team's charitable arm Bears Care in 2005, which has since granted nearly $35 million to over 200 agencies throughout the Chicagoland community through targeted programs supporting education, youth athletics, medical research and health awareness programs focusing on breast and ovarian cancer.

BEARS TEAM CAPTAINS

Since 2007, at the recommendation of the NFL's six-member player advisory council, NFL teams could name season-long captains. Captains are designated with a square patch with the letter "C" and four gold stars across the bottom. A player receives a gold star for each year he is a team captain. Teams are allowed to determine how they want to select their captains, some opting for weekly captains which do not wear the "C" patch. In 2014 then again from 2018-21 the Bears opted to name captains on a weekly basis therefore no Bears player wore the captain's "C" patch.

WALTER PAYTON MAN OF THE YEAR

Charles Tillman receives the Gladiator statue from NFL Commissioner Roger Goodell upon being named the 2013 Walter Payton Man of the Year.

The Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year Award is the only NFL award that recognizes a player for his community service activities as well as his excellence on the field. Renamed in 1999 for the legendary Chicago Bears Pro Football Hall of Fame running back, the Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year Award has been given annually since 1970.

Chicago Bears cornerback Charles Tillman was named the 2013 Walter Payton Man of the Year, marking the fifth Chicago Bears player to be honored with the award -- tied with the Kansas City Chiefs for the most among NFL franchises -- joining Payton (1977), Dave Duerson (1987), Mike Singletary (1990) and Jim Flanigan (2000).

Tillman joined an esteemed list of winners of the annual award, including 17 Pro Football Hall of Famers. Recent winners of the Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year Award include Bobby Wagner, Washington Commanders (2025); Arik Armstead, Jacksonville Jaguars (2024); Cam Heyward, Pittsburgh Steelers (2023); Dak Prescott, Dallas Cowboys (2022); Andrew Whitworth, Los Angeles Rams (2021).

All 32 nominees receive up to a $40,000 donation and the winner receives a $250,000 donation to the charity of their choice. Fans can vote directly at NFL.com/ManOfTheYear or post #WPMOYChallenge on X. The nominee who receives the most collective hashtag mentions and votes win an additional $35,000 donation from Nationwide to the charity of their choice, with the runner-up receiving $10,000 and the third-place winner receiving $5,000.

The winner of the Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year Award receives the Gladiator statue, an original art creation by the noted sculptor, Daniel Schwartz, at the NFL Honors.

ED BLOCK COURAGE AWARD

The Ed Block Courage Award Foundation is dedicated to improving the lives of abused, neglected and at-risk children and ending the cycle of abuse. The purpose is to raise Awareness and Prevention of child abuse. That objective is coupled with the Foundation's commitment to celebrating players of inspiration in the NFL.

The award recipient symbolizes professionalism, great strength and dedication. He is also a community role model. With this honor he enters into association which contrasts his fierce profession by becoming a major component of the Courage House national support network. He becomes a crusader for victims of abuse, violence and neglect.

Each year, the Ed Block Courage Awards honor those National Football League players who exemplify commitments to the principles of sportsmanship and courage. This award is unique in that the recipients are selected solely by a vote of their teammates. Every fall, each of the thirty-two teams conduct a vote which results in each team selecting their Ed Block Courage Award recipient for the year.

The Ed Block Courage Award began in Baltimore in honor of Eddie Block, former head athletic trainer of the Baltimore Colts. Eddie Block and his wife dedicated their lives to helping children in distress as foster parents and advisers. There are 16 Courage Houses presently connected with NFL teams, locally the Maryville Academy in Des Plaines.

Ed McCaskey was the 1992 Honorary National Chairman of the 14th Annual Ed Block Courage Awards. Each offseason Maryville Academy hosts a luncheon to promote awareness for the award and its causes. The proceeds go to the Ed McCaskey scholarship winners at Maryville, which has been the Chicago Courage House since 1992.

Since its inception, the Foundation, through its charter with the Courage House National Support Network for Kids, and an affiliation with the National Football League and Professional Football Athletics Trainers Society, has helped to provide hope to countless children and raised millions of dollars.

Andrew Billings, Chicago's 2025 recipient of the Ed Block Courage Award, accepts the award from President and CEO Kevin Warren.

BRIAN PICCOLO AWARD

In memory of Brian Piccolo, each season since 1970 a Bears rookie has been honored with the Brian Piccolo Award. In 1992, the award was expanded to include a veteran as well. The Piccolo Award is a special honor voted on by Bears players, who select a teammate they feel best exemplifies the courage, loyalty, teamwork, dedication and sense of humor of the late Brian Piccolo.

Brian Piccolo signed with the Bears as a free agent out of Wake Forest in 1965 - the same year Hall of Famer Gale Sayers was drafted. The two became roommates, and Piccolo's support of Sayers through a devastating knee injury, as well as Sayers' devotion when Piccolo was stricken with cancer in 1969, became the stuff of legend. Piccolo was in his fourth season when a chest x-ray revealed a malignancy. Several months later on June 16, 1970, he died at age 26 from embryonal cell carcinoma.

Following his death, the Brian Piccolo Cancer Research Fund was established and proceeds were sent to the Sloan-Kettering Cancer Center in New York for research on embryonal cell carcinoma. At the time Piccolo died, the disease was 100% fatal, but today the cure rate is more than 95%.

With that victory, proceeds from the Brian Piccolo Cancer Research Fund now benefits breast cancer research at Rush Medical Center and provides support to the Clearbrook Center for the developmentally disabled in Arlington Heights.

Since turning its attention to the fight against breast cancer, the Brian Piccolo Cancer Research Fund, as well as all those who have generously joined in its efforts, has raised over $10 million for research since 1991. The fund remains active and welcomes the interest of contributions of others who share its commitment to breast cancer research and to the memory of Brian Piccolo.

JEFF DICKERSON GOOD GUY AWARD

Each year, the Chicago Chapter of the Professional Football Writers of America presents an award to a Bears player, coach or administrator who has been exemplary in the way he has interacted with the media. The "Good Guy" is chosen by the writers based on his professionalism, courtesy and respect in dealings with the press in the past year. The Bears and the Chicago media have enjoyed a mutually beneficial relationship since team founder George S. Halas personally delivered press releases to Chicago newspaper offices in the 1930s.

The PFWA Chicago Chapter's Good Guy Award is named for Jeff Dickerson, who lost his battle with cancer in December 2021. No one embodied the term "Good Guy" more than JD. He was loved by everyone: family, friends, colleagues, coaches and players. Always a consummate professional, JD took a great deal of pride in his coverage of the Bears for 20 years and is missed every day.

CHICAGO BEARS CLINICS

The Chicago Bears' clinics program is a cornerstone of the team's international youth football efforts, introducing kids aged 8-14 to the fundamentals of football through fun, skills based clinics. Since expanding to Spain and the United Kingdom, Bears clinics have impacted over 10,000 young athletes, providing them with hands-on coaching and opportunities to develop their teamwork, agility and football knowledge.

In the United Kingdom, the Bears have traveled to 12 cities, including London, Manchester and Liverpool, engaging over 6,000 kids from 50 different schools. In Spain, the Bears have hosted clinics in Madrid, Badalona, Barcelona and Valencia, serving over 4,000 kids. The Bears clinics have become a key platform for introducing football and the Chicago Bears to young athletes. In 2025, the Bears hosted 22 clinics across five international cities including Liverpool, Manchester, Madrid, Valencia, and Barcelona.

FLAG FOOTBALL

The Chicago Bears are expanding access to girls flag football across the United Kingdom and Spain, creating opportunities for young female athletes to compete and develop their skills in the sport.

In the United Kingdom, the Bears operate flag football leagues in London, Manchester and the midlands. In 2026, over 600 girls will participate in Bears' leagues. The Chicago Bears co-launched the first girls flag football league in London with the New York Jets in 2023. Interest in the sport has grown rapidly since. In 2024, the Bears began operating leagues independently and have expanded leagues to over 40 teams for the 2026 season.

In Spain, the Chicago Bears launched the first season of girls flag football leagues in Madrid and Barcelona. The leagues consisted of 12 teams with over 150 girls participating in the inaugural season. To date, the Chicago Bears have hosted several player and coaches clinics in the region.

INTERNATIONAL GAMES

Chicago participated in the NFL's first "American Bowl" game, when they traveled to London to take on the Dallas Cowboys in 1986. Since that contest, the Bears have played exhibitions in Sweden, Germany and Ireland as well as a regular season game back in Canada.

The NFL officially launched the NFL International Series in 2007, with regular season games to be played overseas each season. The Bears have participated on three occasions, all in London, England, a 2011 tilt at Wembley Stadium and a pair of games at Tottenham Hotspur Stadium in 2019 and 2024.

Through strategic collaboration with community and business partners, we offer and support initiatives that promote literacy, provide character education at the middle school and high school levels, and honor outstanding teachers in the Chicago area. It is our hope that these initiatives will help foster a love of learning and encourage students to stay in school and continue to pursue their education.

HEALTH & WELLNESS

The health and wellness of our fans has always been a top priority for the Chicago Bears. We encourage children to establish healthy eating and exercise habits that they will carry with them into adulthood. We also try to offer support to our fans who may be experiencing challenging times. We provide assistance in a variety of ways, including delivering teddy bears to young fans in the hospital, offering wish-granting opportunities, collecting coats during the winter season, and lending a helping hand to organizations and communities in need.

MILITARY

The Chicago Bears are dedicated to supporting the men and women in the United States Military. Our ties date back to when our founder, George S. We are proud to continue this tradition through numerous initiatives that provide support and show our sincere gratitude to those who serve our country and protect our freedom. Our efforts include honoring outstanding service during each home game at Soldier Field, sending care packages and providing unique Bears experiences to veterans, active members of the military and their families.

YOUTH FOOTBALL

The Chicago Bears have always taken an active role in offering and supporting a variety of youth football programs and opportunities. We host events that bring youth football coaches and leaders together to share ideas and promote safety and awareness which help build a healthy and strong foundation for youth football players. Our partnership with USA Football reiterates the importance of education and certification of coaches, concussion awareness, equipment fitting, proper tackling and heat and hydration. Through our tackle and flag leagues and skill development clinics, our goal remains the same – to teach and encourage children to play football.

The Chicago Bears are proud to support high school football in Illinois. Through several recognition programs, we honor high school boys tackle and girls flag coaches and players across the state who are making an impact on the field and in their communities. We also celebrate the accomplishment of the eight IHSA state football champions and girls flag football state champions during a Bears home game in December. Additionally, the Bears provide funding to ensure that certified athletic trainers are available at Chicago Public School varsity football games and offer a variety of clinics and camps throughout the year to further players' development.

The Chicago Bears and Bears Care, alongside our players, have long supported local organizations who are inspiring positive change in the community and advancing our commitment to social justice. We continue to take action in our communities and, together, believe we can make a real difference. The players' social justice initiative has invested and raised more than $1 million through donations and matching grants from the team, Bears Care and NFL Foundation for various organizations. Additionally, the Bears regularly host members of those organizations at Halas Hall for practices and meet-and-greets with the team during the season.
